

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Between Risk and Resilience – An Interdisciplinary Dialogue on Genocide Bert Ingelaere, Stephan Parmentier, Jacques Haers SJ and Barbara Segaert	1
Part I Prevention and Coping: Theoretical Debates and Institutional Frameworks
1 The Concept of Genocide: What Are We Preventing? Martin Shaw	23
2 Coping Strategies and Genocide Prevention René Lemarchand	36
3 Reconsidering Root Causes: A New Framework for the Structural Prevention of Genocide and Mass Atrocities Stephen McLoughlin and Deborah Mayersen	49
4 Communities that Taste for More: Religion's Best Way of Preventing Genocide Jacques Haers SJ	68
5 An Ethics of Relationality: Destabilising the Exclusionary Frame of Us versus Them Anya Topolski	85
6 Shared Burdens and Perpetrator–Victim Group Conciliation Henry C. Theriault	98
7 Confronting the 'Crime of Crimes': Key Issues of Transitional Justice after Genocide Stephan Parmentier	108
Part II Risk and Resilience: Contextual and Empirical Insights
8 Genocide and the Problem of the State in Bosnia in the Twentieth Century Cathie Carmichael	131

9	N'ajoutons pas la guerre à la guerre: French Responses to Genocide in Bosnia Chris Jones	150
10	Finding Havens to Save Lives: Four Case Studies from the Jewish Refugee Crisis of the 1930s Dean J. Kotlowski	164
11	Genocide and Property: Root Cause or Concomitant Effect? Uğur Ümit Üngör	178
12	The Meaning of Monetary Reparations after a Genocide: The German–Jewish Case in the Early 1950s Joëlle Hecker	190
13	Mass Amnesia: The Role of Memory after Genocide – A Case Study of Contemporary Poland Katarzyna Szurmiak	202
14	Hidden Death: Rwandan Post-Genocide Gacaca Justice and Its Dangerous Blind Spots Bert Ingelaere	212
	Index	231