

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Susan Flynn and Antonia Mackay
 Part I Art, Photography and Film
2	Equality and Erasure: Responses to Subject Negation in the Art of Jill Magid	21
	Amy Christmas
3	Camera Performed: Visualising the Behaviours of Technology in Digital Performance	45
	Jaclyn Meloche
4	'She's not There'—Shallow Focus on Privacy, Surveillance, and Emerging Techno-Mediated Modes of Being in Spike Jonze's Her	65
	William Thomas McBride
5	Surveillance in Zero Dark Thirty: Terrorism, Space and Identity	87
	Frances Pheasant-Kelly

- 6 To See and to Be Seen: Surveillance, the Vampiric Lens
and the Undead Subject 105
Simon Bacon

Part II Literature

- 7 Watching Through Windows: Bret Easton Ellis and Urban Surveillance 123
Alison Lutton
- 8 Participating in '1984': The Surveillance of Sousveillance from White Noise to Right Now 137
Caleb Andrew Milligan
- 9 Surveillance in Post-Postmodern American Fiction: Dave
Eggers's The Circle, Jonathan Franzen's Purity and Gary
Shteyngart's Super Sad True Love Story 151
Virginia Pignagnoli
- 10 Citizen: Claudia Rankine, From the First to the Second Person 169
Jeffrey Clapp

Part III States, Place and Bodies

- 11 Castrating Blackness: Surveillance, Profiling and Management in the Canadian Context 187
Sam Teclé, Tapo Chimbanga, Francesca D'Amico
and Yafet Tewelde
- 12 Sousveillance as a Tool in US Civic Polity 211
Mary Ryan