

CONTENTS

1 Introduction	1
Katherine Haldane Grenier and Amanda R. Mushal
Part I Memory and the Personal: Community, Commercial Culture, and Global Commerce	17
2 Mirrors with a Memory: Postmortem Photography and Spirit Photography in Transitional British Fiction and Culture	19
Susan E. Cook
3 Autograph Albums and the Commercialization of Memory in the United States	39
Jennifer M. Black
4 Music for Birthdays: Commemorative Birthday Pieces in Johannes Brahms's Circle (1853–1854) and Elsewhere	61
Jacquelyn Sholes
5 A Whale Is a Palimpsest: Dismembering and Remembering in Moby-Dick and Fighting the Whales	81
Kelly P. Bushnell

xv

6	Votive Boats, Ex-votos, and Maritime Memory in Atlantic France Maura Coughlin	97
Part II Memory and Civic Identity		123
7	Libby Prison War Museum: Site of Commemoration or Commercial Enterprise Angela M. Riotto	125
8	Randolph Cemetery and the Politics of Death in the Post-Civil War South Ashley Towle	145
9	"The Same Effort and the Same Death": The Memory of the Langelibale Incident of 1873 Jacob Ivey	165
10	Remembering the 1857 Indian Uprising in Civic Celebrations Danielle Nielsen	183
11	Nationalist Ironies: The Legacy of the Federalist Party and the Construction of a Unified Republic Asaf Almog	203
12	German Domestic Pedestrian Tourism and the Rhetoric of National Historical Memory, Empire, and Middle-Class Identity 1780s-1850s Johann J. K. Reusch	223
13	The Art of Memory: Tracing the Colonial in Contemporary India Mira Rai Waits	241
Index		269