Contents

Introduction: Mass Violence and Memory in the Digital Age—Memorialization Unmoored 1
David J. Simon and Eve Monique Zucker
Memorialization and the State 3
Memorialization Unmoored from the State 4
Memorialization Unmoored from Physical Space 7
Memorialization Unmoored from Prevailing Ethical Norms 9
Overview of the Volume 12
Bibliography 16

Memorialization in Rwanda: The Legal, Social, and Digital Constructions of the Memorial Narrative 19
Stephanie Wolfe
The Emergence of a New National Narrative 21
Legal Construction and Classification of Memorials 23
Social and Cultural Construction of Memorials 28
Memorialization Unmoored 32
Conclusion 35
Bibliography 42

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Luzern

Breaking the Silence: Memorialization and Cultural Repair in the Aftermath of the Armenian Genocide 45
Armen T. Marsoobian
Introduction 45
Conclusion 65
Bibliography 69

Let Them Speak*: An Effort to Reconnect Communities of Survivors in a Digital Archive 71
Stephen Naron and Gabor Mihaly Toth
Introducing Let Them Speak 71
From Community of Survivors to Community of Testimonies and Memories 73
Fortunoff Video Archive: A Community Project with an Ethical Approach 74
How LTS Works: Finding Connections, Commonalities, and Heterogeneity 77
Inclusion of the Voiceless 83
Making Testimonies Accessible: Past and Present 87
Conclusion: Avoiding Digital Inhumanities 89
Bibliography 94

(Re)Producing the Past Online: Oral History and Social Media–Based Discourse on Cambodian Performing Arts in the Aftermath of Genocide 95
Stephanie Khoury
Of Forgetting and Remembrance 98
Online Archival Collections: Reconnecting the Past with the Present 102
Sociocultural Identity and Virtual Public Spaces on Social Media Sites 107
Concluding Remarks 115
Bibliography 120

From the Material to the Digital: Reflections on Collecting and Exhibiting Grief at the 9/11 Memorial Museum 123
Alexandra Drakakis
Randolph Scott 126
Marisa DiNardo Schorpp 128
Avnish Ramanbhai Patel 134
Conclusion 137
Bibliography 138

Teaching and Learning in Virtual Places of Exception: Gone GITMO and the Guantánamo Bay Museum of Art and History 141
Cathlin Goulding
Introduction: The First Glimpse 141
Locating Guantánamo in Virtual Place 143
Gone GITMO: Immersive Experiences in a Digital Place of Exception 145
The Guantánamo Bay Museum of Art and History: "Disturbing" the Narrative of the Place of Exception 158
Virtual Linkages to Suffering 167
Bibliography 170

The Slow Rise of Social Movement Organizations for Memorialization in Haiti: Lutte Contre Impunite, Devoire de Memoire-Haiti and Digitizing the Record on Atrocities 175
Henry F. (Chip) Carey
Memorialization in Haiti 177
Documenting and Digitizing Haiti's Mass Atrocities 182
NGO Digitization Activities of Memorialization 183
Unfavorable Environment for Nongovernmental Actors 189
Conclusion 190
Bibliography 194

"Rebuilding the Jigsaw of Memory": The Discourse of Portuguese Colonial War Veterans' Blogs 197
Verónica Ferreira
Introduction 197
Colonial War: The Mists of Memory 198
The Virtualized Memory of War 201
"(Re)constructing the Jigsaw of Memory": War Veterans in the Blogipelago 205
The Tabancas 208
Fragments of Memory: Narratives and Visual Representations on the Blog 212
Final Considerations 218
Bibliography 221

Conclusion 225
David J. Simon and Eve Monique Zucker
Common Themes 226
Implications 231
Future Directions 234
Bibliography 236

Index 237