

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| List of Figures   | x   |
| List of Plates  | xii |
| 1. Introduction —Paul Hockings   | 1   |
| 2. The Nilgiri Tribal System: A View from Below—Nurit Bird-David                     | 5   |
| 3. The Megalithic Graves of the Nilgiri Hills andThe Moyar Ditch —Allen Zagarell    | 23  |
| 4. Linguistics and Botany in the Nilgiris—M. B. Emeneau                              | 74  |
| 5. The Western Romance with the Toda—Anthony R. Walker                               | 106 |
| 6. Badaga and its Relations with Neighbouring Language—Christiane Pilot-Raichoor     | 136 |
| 7. Immigrant Labourers and Local Networks in the Nilgiri—Frank Heidemann             | 148 |
| 8. Voice in the Forest: The Field of Gathering among theJēnu Kurumba —Ulrich Demmer | 164 |
| 9. Toda Huts and Houses, Traditional and Modern—William A. Noble                     | 192 |
| 10. Rain, God, and Unity among the Kotas—Richard Kent Wolf                           | 231 |
| 11. Badaga Epic Poetry—Paul Hockings   | 293 |
| 12. The Construction of the Nilgiris As a 'Tribal Sanctuary'—Marie-Claude Mahias     | 316 |
| Biographical Notes  | 335 |
| Index   | 339 |