

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
1. Transnational feminism and global advocacy in South Asia Gita Rajan and Jigna Desai	1
2. In search of the choreographies of daily life and struggle Ananya Chatterjee	13
3. Churnings of a movement: Sangtin's diary Richa Nagar and Richa Singh	25
4. Citizenship and dissent: South Asian Muslim youth in the US after 9/11 Sunaina Maira	39
5. Global nationalisms, pastoral identities: Association for India's Development (AID) negotiates transnational activism Kumarini Silva	55
6. Impact of tsunami in the East – Muslim women's perspective Shreen Saroor	65
7. Bending bodies, borders and desires in Bapsi Sidhwa's Cracking India and Deepa Mehta's Earth Rani Neutill	81
8. Eat, pray, love, mimic: Female citizenship and otherness R. Diyah Larasati	97
9. Grassroots texts: Ethnographic ruptures and transnational feminist imaginaries Piya Chatterjee	105
Index	119