

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

About the Contributors ix

- Introduction: Religion on the Edge: De-centering and Re-centering 1
COURTNEY BENDER, WENDY CADGE, PEGGY LEVITT, AND
DAVID SMILDE

PART ONE RETHINKING CATEGORIES: THEORETICAL APPROACHES

1. Grappling with the Legacy of Modernity: Implications for the Sociology of Religion 23
MANUEL A. VÁSQUEZ
2. Beyond the Strong Program in the Sociology of Religion 43
DAVID SMILDE
3. Toward a Comparative-Historical Sociology of Religious Politics:
The Case for Cross-Religious and Cross-Regional Comparisons 67
ATEŞ ALTINORDU
4. Religious Self-Constitution: A Relational Perspective 92
MICHAL PAGIS
5. Studying Public Religion: Beyond the Beliefs-Driven Actor 115
PAUL LICHTERMAN
6. Pluralism and Secularism 137
COURTNEY BENDER
7. Religion on the Move: Mapping Global Cultural Production and Consumption 159
PEGGY LEVITT

8. Difficult Dialogues: The Technologies and Limits of Reconciliation 179
DAWNE MOON
9. Negotiating Religious Differences in Secular Organizations: The Case of Hospital Chapels 200
WENDY CADGE
10. Negotiating Pluralism in Québec: Identity, Religion, and Secularism in the Debate over "Reasonable Accommodation" 215
GENEVIÈVE ZUBRZYCKI
11. Revisiting Religious Power: The Korean Evangelical Church as a Disciplinary Institution 238
KELLY H. CHONG
12. Crossing Borders: Transnational Sanctuary, Social Justice, and the Church 263
JACQUELINE MARIA HAGAN
- Conclusion: Working the Edges 284
COURTNEY BENDER, WENDY CADGE,
PEGGY LEVITT, AND DAVID SMILDE