

Contents

Foreword	vii
Günther Schlee
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
Martine Guichard
Part I. Friendship, Kinship and Age
Chapter 1. Where Are Other People's Friends Hiding? Reflections on Anthropological Studies of Friendship	19
Martine Guichard
Chapter 2. Comradeship and the Transformation of Alliance Theory among the Maasai: Shifting the Focus from Descent to Peer-Group Loyalty	42
Paul Spencer
Part II. Friendship and Ethnicity
Chapter 3. Friendship Networks in Southwestern Ethiopia	57
Wolde Gossa Tadesse and Martine Guichard
Chapter 4. Friendship and Spiritual Parenthood among the Moose and the Fulbe in Burkina Faso	74
Mark Breusers
Chapter 5. Labour Migration and Moral Dimensions of Interethnic Friendships: The Case of Young Gold Miners in Benin (West Africa)	97
Tilo Grätz
Part III. Friendship, Politics and Urbanity
Chapter 6. Friendship and Kinship among Merchants and Veterans in Mali	119
Richard L. Warms
Chapter 7. 'Down-to-Earth': Friendship and a National Elite Circle in Botswana	133
Richard Werbner

Chapter 8. Negotiating Friendship and Kinship in a Context of Violence: The Case of the Tuareg during the Upheaval in Mali from 1990 to 1996	145
Georg Klute
Afterword. Friendship in a World of Force and Power	161
Stephen P. Reyna
Bibliography	180
Notes on Contributors	200
Index	202