

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
-----------------	-----

Introduction

Indigenous Knowledge and the Environment

DAVID M. GORDON AND SHEPARD KRECH III	1
---------------------------------------	---

PART 1: MIDDLE GROUND

Chapter 1.	Looking Like a White Man Geopolitical Strategies of the Iowa Indians during American Incorporation DAVID BERNSTEIN	27
-------------------	---	----

Chapter 2.	On Biomedicine, Transfers of Knowledge, and Malaria Treatments in Eastern North America and Tropical Africa JAMES L. A. WEBB, JR.	53
-------------------	--	----

Chapter 3.	Indigenous Ethnoornithology in the American South SHEPARD KRECH III	69
-------------------	--	----

Chapter 4.	Nation-Building Knowledge Dutch Indigenous Knowledge and the Invention of White South Africanism, 1890–1909 LANCE VAN SITTEERT	94
-------------------	---	----

PART 2: CONFLICT

Chapter 5.	Locust Invasions and Tensions over Environmental and Bodily Health in the Colonial Transkei JACOB TROPP	113
-------------------	---	-----

Chapter 6.	Navajos, New Dealers, and the Metaphysics of Nature MARSHA WEISIGER	129
Chapter 7.	Cherokee Medicine and the 1824 Smallpox Epidemic PAUL KELTON	151

PART 3: ENVIRONMENTAL RELIGION

Chapter 8.	Spirit of the Salmon Native Religion, Rights, and Resource Use in the Columbia River Basin ANDREW H. FISHER	173
Chapter 9.	Indigenous Spirits: Ancestral Power in a South-Central African Kingdom DAVID M. GORDON	196
Chapter 10.	Recruiting Nature Snakes, Serpents, and Social Movements in East Africa and North America PARKER SHIPTON	216

PART 4: RESOURCE RIGHTS

Chapter 11.	Marine Tenure of the Makahs JOSHUA REID	243
Chapter 12.	Reinventing "Traditional" Medicine in Postapartheid South Africa KAREN FLINT	259
Chapter 13.	Dilemmas of "Indigenous Tenure" in South Africa Traditional Authorities and the Constitutional Challenge to the 2004 Communal Land Rights Act DERICK FAY	287
	Selected Bibliography	307
	Contributors	317
	Index	319