

Contents

Introduction 11

Part I. Cultural and organizational setting

Chapter 1. The cultural conventions of communications 15

Chapter 2. Ecology and subsistence 28

Part II. The initiation rites

Chapter 3. General features of the system 47

Chapter 4. First degree initiation 51

Chapter 5. Second degree initiation 59

Chapter 6. Third degree initiation 63

Chapter 7. Fourth degree initiation 72

Chapter 8. Fifth degree initiation 79

Chapter 9. Sixth degree initiation 83

Chapter 10. Seventh degree initiation 95

Part III. Other idiom clusters

Chapter 11. The social context of communication 105

Chapter 12. Community and temple leadership 107

Chapter 13. Spirits and the dead 123

Chapter 14. Sorcery 131

Chapter 15. Sickness and curing 137

Chapter 16. Killing, warfare and cannibalism 144

Part IV. Codes in Baktaman ritual

Chapter 17. Structure in non-verbal codes 157

Chapter 18. Taboo 162

Chapter 19. Colours 172

Chapter 20. Natural species as vehicles for communication 180

Chapter 21. Sacrifice and commensality	191
Chapter 22. On the variety of metaphors in Baktaman rites	199
Chapter 23. On the interpretation of ritual idioms	207

Part V. The sociology of Baktaman knowledge

Chapter 24. The epistemology of secrecy	217
Chapter 25. Ritual, speech, and knowledge	223
Chapter 26. Baktaman ritual as a fertility mystery	232
Chapter 27. Creative and stagnant sectors of knowledge	239
Chapter 28. The temple syndromes	247
Chapter 29. Transmission and integration	255

Appendix I: Contact history	269
-----------------------------	-----

Appendix II: Demography	270
-------------------------	-----

Appendix III: Myths	278
---------------------	-----

References	283
------------	-----

Index	285
-------	-----