

Contents

Contributors	page vii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xix
 Introduction: Legal Pluralism and Development Policy – Scholars and Practitioners in Dialogue Caroline Sage and Michael Woolcock	 1
 PART I. ORIGINS AND CONTOURS
 1 Historical Perspectives on Legal Pluralism Lauren Benton	 21
 2 The Rule of Law and Legal Pluralism in Development Brian Z. Tamanaha	 34
 3 Bendable Rules: The Development Implications of Human Rights Pluralism David Kinley	 50
 4 Legal Pluralism and Legal Culture: Mapping the Terrain Sally Engle Merry	 66
 5 Toward Equity in Development When the Law Is Not the Law: Reflections on Legal Pluralism in Practice Daniel Adler and Sokbunthoeun So	 83

PART II. THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS AND CONCEPTUAL DEBATES

- | | | |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 6 | Sustainable Diversity in Law
H. Patrick Glenn | 95 |
| 7 | Legal Pluralism 101
William Twining | 112 |
| 8 | The Development “Problem” of Legal Pluralism:
An Analysis and Steps toward Solutions
Gordon R. Woodman | 129 |
| 9 | Institutional Hybrids and the Rule of Law as a Regulatory Project
Kanishka Jayasuriya | 145 |
| 10 | Some Implications of the Application of Legal Pluralism to Development Practice
Doug J. Porter | 162 |

PART III. FROM THEORY TO PRACTICE

- | | | |
|-----------|--|-----|
| 11 | Legal Pluralism and International Development Agencies:
State Building or Legal Reform
Julio Faundez | 177 |
| 12 | Access to Property and Citizenship: Marginalization in a
Context of Legal Pluralism
Christian Lund | 197 |
| 13 | The Publicity “Defect” of Customary Law
Varun Gauri | 215 |
| 14 | Unearthing Pluralism: Mining, Multilaterals, and the State
Meg Taylor and Nicholas Menzies | 228 |
| 15 | The Problem with Problematizing Legal Pluralism: Lessons
from the Field
Deborah H. Isser | 237 |

Index

249