

Inhalt

Foreword	5
The end-of-life; a historical and legal perspective Soazick Kerneis	11
The Invention of the Dying Person, a new medical norm? Guillaume Le Blanc	21
Les desillusions du droit bioethique dans les législations sur la fin de vie Jeanne Mesmin d'Estienne	29
La loi Claeys-Leonetti sur la fin de vie (France) : évaluation de sa mise en œuvre et recommandations pour une meilleure application Louis-Charles Viossat	45
Petite philosophie de la loi Léonetti-Claeys Christophe Pacific	53
Comparative end-of-life legislation in Germany, France, Italy, Great Britain and India
Patient Autonomy, Advance Directives, and Decisions by Proxy in Germany Volker Lipp	73
Legislative approach regarding end of life in France Christine Laquitaine, Philippe Poulain	85
The difficult balance between patients' rights and the liabilities of medical practitioners Stephanie Rohlfing-Dijoux	93

“Una buona legge buona”: la l. n. 219 del 2017 e la relazione medico-paziente Stefano Canestrari	107
English translation of the paper of "A good good law": Law nr. 219 of 2017 and the doctor-patient relationship Stefano Canestrari	115
 End-of-life studies in France, Great Britain, Italy and India
Assisted Dying in England and Wales: Conway’s Challenge – Déjà Vu or Jamais Vu? Kartina A. Choong, Richard Law	123
The Lambert Case Sabine Boussard	135
Sallekhana: linguistic, legal, philosophical, and religio-cultural perspectives Prasannanshu Prasannanshu	149
Recognition of Right to Die with Dignity and Comparative Approaches to Adoption of Laws on Palliative Care and End-of-Life Pierre Rosario Domingue	167
Should the right to life include the right not to life? A multi-jurisdictional case-law analysis Arvin Halkhoree	179
End of Life legislation under German Civil Law Kerstin Peglow	187
The judge’s power over life and death Jörg Luther	197

Criminal liability for accompanying death

Lawful and unlawful terminal care in Germany Uwe Hellmann	217
Businesslike Assisted Dying – a Legal Comparison Géraldine Demme	229
Is assisted dying a victimless crime? Reflections about the role of consent and motive in criminal law Sabir Kadel	239
When does life end? The moment of death in criminal law Anja van Bernum	251
Qualification of suicide and assistance in German law Marie Rossier	261

Specific questions of civil and public law on the end of life

The will of the patient, up to where must it be respected? Analysis focusing on minor patients and Jehovah's Witnesses Victoria Roux	275
Respecting the will of protected adults at the end of life: comparative study of the French and German laws Charles Walleit	291
The right to live/ the right to die: the differences between the acts of suicide and passive euthanasia under Indian law Position of euthanasia in India (analytical study) Berquis Bestvater	303