

Contents

List of illustrations	x
Preface	xi
1 Introduction: beyond the binary of power and authority: religion and politics in contemporary Russia	1
Introduction	1
Russian Orthodoxy, religious beliefs and practices	4
Theoretical outline	8
Secularization, secularism and multiple secularities	8
Politics and religion vs. state and church	12
Caesaropapism and harmony (symphonia)	14
Entangled authorities	15
The field sites	20
Methodology	23
Overview of the book	25
Patriotism, Orthodox religion and education	26
A post-socialist palimpsest: on the restitution of property and the creation of 'authentic' landscapes	27
The newly established festive Day of Family, Love and Faithfulness and the Saints Peter and Fevroniia	28
Nationalism, conservatism and militarism in post-Soviet Russian Orthodoxy and politics	29
2 The relation between Russian Orthodoxy and politics in Russian history	32
The introduction of Orthodox religion in the early Rus'	32
Russian Orthodoxy and politics after the end of the Riurikid dynasty until the October Revolution	34
The end of the Russian Empire and the socialist era	35
The reemergence of religion in the public sphere, the end of the Soviet Union and the post-socialist era	37

3	Russian Orthodoxy, religious education and the growing importance of patriotism	41
	Introduction	41
	Religious and moral education in Russia	44
	Religious education in state schools in the post-Soviet period	45
	Fundamentals of Orthodox Culture (FOC)	47
	FOC in practice through the eyes of those who support it	49
	FOC in practice through the eyes of those who oppose it	52
	An Orthodox critique of the FOC module	55
	Religious education in private Orthodox schools	57
	Religious education and notions of patriotism	59
	Conclusion	61
4	A post-socialist palimpsest: on the restitution of property and the making of ‘authentic’ landscapes in contemporary Russia	65
	Introduction	65
	Property: anthropological and theoretical perspectives	67
	The history of the property of the Russian Orthodox Church	70
	The return of church buildings	72
	Problems related to the return of church buildings	76
	Ethnographic examples of property restitution	78
	The Monastery in Bogoliubovo	78
	The parish community in Bogoliubovo	83
	The planetarium in Vladimir	84
	Conclusion	86
5	The newly established festive Day of Family, Love and Faithfulness and the Saints Peter and Fevroniia	91
	Introduction	91
	Festive days and public religion	93
	The history of the Saints Peter and Fevroniia	96
	Discourses and understandings	98
	The demographic threat and a need for state intervention	98
	Single motherhood and gender aspects	101
	Genuinely Russian love and anti-Westernism	102
	Festive days as state interventions and related critique	105
	The emergence of personal and institutional entanglements	108
	Conclusion	110

6	Nationalism, conservatism and militarism in post-Soviet Russian Orthodoxy and politics	113
	Introduction	113
	Nationalism and identity	115
	The rise of fundamentalism and illiberal conservatism in contemporary Russia	118
	The growing importance of traditional moral values	119
	Sinful production	121
	Religious fundamentalism and a growing militarism	123
	The reemergence of Cossack groups	123
	Celebration of the end of the 'Great Patriotic War' in Vladimir	127
	Military-patriotic education and the 'Day of Mercy'	129
	Conclusion	133
7	Orthodox religion and politics in contemporary Russia: entangled authorities in the making	135
	Bibliography	144
	Index	163