

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	11
Abstract	13
Introduction: The Cemetery as a Site for Studying (New) Diversity	15
1.1 Meta-Analytic Concerns and a Two-Pronged Approach	15
1.1.1 Cemeteries and the Islamic and Humanist Burial Challenge ..	18
1.2 Research Questions and Their Operationalization in The Field	22
1.3 Wider Research Context and Main Contributions.....	27
1.3.1 Empirical Findings and Theoretical Implications.....	32
1.4 Chapter Outline	34
Chapter 2: Theoretical Frameworks of Religious Governance and Discursive Institutionalism.....	37
2.1 Introduction	37
2.2 State of the Art: State Accommodation of Diversity	38
2.3 A Multileveled, Discursive (Religious) Governance Approach	42
2.3.1 Explaining the Metalevel Framework of Religious Governance	42
2.3.2 Integrating Elements of an Actor-Centered Institutionalism...	44
2.3.3 Discursive Institutionalism: How Ideas and Discourse Matter.....	45
2.3.4 The Role of Cultural Sensibilities: Talal Asad's Anthropology of Secularism	50
2.4 Additional Methods	57
2.4.1 Comparative Method, Multiple Embedded Case Study, and Ethnography	58
2.4.2 Fieldwork Challenges.....	64
2.4.3 Clarification of Terms	69
2.5 Conclusion	72
Chapter 3: Legal Burial Regimes, State-Organized Religion Regimes, and Their Historical Genealogy.....	75
3.1 Introduction	75
3.1.1 The French Cemetery	76
3.1.2 The Dutch Cemetery	78

3.1.3	The Norwegian Cemetery.....	80
3.1.4	Summary	82
3.2	Historical Contextualization of Burial Laws	83
3.2.1	France: From Municipalization to Laicification	83
3.2.2	The Netherlands: From Reformed Status Quo to Pluralization	86
3.2.3	Norway: From Municipal Administration to Churchly Administration	89
3.2.4	Summary	93
3.3	A Wider Understanding of State-Organized Religion Relations.....	93
3.3.1	France: Gallican, Associational, and Strict Neutrality Schemes.....	94
3.3.2	The Netherlands: Principled Pluralism and Separation Tradition	98
3.3.3	Norway: Establishment, Compensatory Evenhandedness, and Municipal Disestablishment	102
3.3.4	Comparative Reflections	106
3.4	Conclusion	107
Chapter 4: National Policies and Regulations: Responses to Muslims and Humanists.....		111
4.1	Introduction	111
4.2	Muslim Burial Practices in a Context of Immigration	112
4.2.1	France: Les Carrés Musulmans from Illegality to Practical Permissibility.....	119
4.2.2	The Netherlands: Lack of Contestation.....	122
4.2.3	Norway: Why French Muslims Are Like Norwegian Humanists.....	124
4.2.3.1	The Norwegian Humanist Association	125
4.3	Conclusion: National Policy Patterns.....	129
Chapter 5: Embedded Case Studies: Institutional and Discursive Responses to Burial Needs		133
5.1	Introduction	133
5.2	Dutch Embedded Cases.....	134
5.2.1	Amsterdam: A Public Solution	134
5.2.2	The Hague: The Seven Gravefields of Westduin: ‘To each their own spot’.....	140
5.2.3	Almere: A Private Muslim Cemetery	144
5.2.4	Summary Dutch Municipalities.....	147

5.3 Norwegian Embedded Cases	149
5.3.1 Støren: 'Soft' Sections and Individual Consecration.....	149
5.3.2 Elverum: Individual Consecration as a Solution	153
5.3.3 Oslo: Public Solutions and Negotiations in Practice	159
5.3.4 Solving the Humanist Puzzle and Adaptation of the 1996 Funeral Act.....	161
5.3.5 Summary Norwegian Municipalities.....	163
5.4 French Embedded Cases.....	165
5.4.1 Paris: Historical Examples and Contemporary Governance....	165
5.4.1.1 Historical Examples in the Paris Region	167
5.4.1.2 Contemporary Part of the Paris Region	176
5.4.2 Montreuil.....	183
5.4.3 Rhône d'Alpes/Lyon.....	191
5.4.4 Summary French Municipalities.....	196
5.5 Conclusion: Comparative Municipal Findings.....	201
 Chapter 6: Institutional Patterns of Governance	209
6.1 Introduction	209
6.2 Municipal Pattern: Material Similarity, Legal Differences	210
6.3 Hypotheses H1 and H2.....	212
6.4 Reasons for Accommodation: Multiplicity of Factors and Means	217
6.4.1 The Institutionalization of Minorities: Internal vs. External Governance	218
6.4.2 Actor Institution Constellation Chart.....	221
6.5 Conclusion	226
 Chapter 7: Discursive Patterns of Governance	229
7.1 Introduction	229
7.2 The Municipal Public Reasoning: Differences and Similarities	229
7.3 The Relevance of National State-Organized Religion Legacies.....	230
7.3.1 Dutch Discourse: Principled Evenhandedness, Separation, Pillarization	231
7.3.2 Norwegian Discourse: Establishment, Compensatory Evenhandedness, Municipal Disestablishment.....	232
7.3.3 How Is Laïcité Used and Argued for in the French Discourse?.....	233
7.3.4 Strict Neutrality, Associational Freedom, and Gallican Logic.....	235
7.3.5 General Summary: The Model's Elements as Discursive Resources	236

7.4 The Causality of State-Organized Religious Legacies.....	237
7.5 The Viability of Secularism as a Structuring Term for Comparison ..	246
7.5.1 Denotative Troubles.....	248
7.5.2 Relevant Quotations: “How Does Secularism Affect Your Decisions?”	248
7.6 Conclusion and Unexpected Finding.....	252
7.6.1 Ways of Living and Sensibilities.....	254
7.6.2 ‘Secular’ Sensibilities?	255
7.6.3 Full Circle	261
Conclusion: A Comparison of State Responses to the (New)
Diversity in the Cemetery	263
8.1 Introduction	263
8.2 Reification	267
8.3 Summary of Burial Patterns	268
8.3.1 Legal Burial Outcomes and Comparative Reflections	268
8.3.2 National Policy Outcomes and Comparative Reflections.....	270
8.3.3 Local Embedded Cases and Municipal Outcomes.....	272
8.4 Comparative and Explanatory Reflections.....	273
8.4.1 Answers to General Research Questions 1, 2, and 3	274
8.4.1.1 Discursive Relevance of State-Organized Religion Legacies.....	278
8.4.1.2 “How Is Secularism Used and Argued for”?	280
8.4.1.3 Back to Asad and the International Discussion on the Secular	284
8.5 Ramifications for the Theoretical Scholarship on Governing Minorities.....	285
8.5.1 Deepening the Thematic of Scholarly Reification	286
8.5.2 Engaging the Discursive Turn and Proposing an Additional Material Turn.....	289
Bibliography	293
Municipal and National Public Documents	311
List of Tables and Schemes.....	315
List of abbreviations	317
Appendix I: Research Questions at Different Levels	319
Appendix II: General Interview Guide	321

Appendix III: Overview of Interviews Conducted.....	323
Index of Persons	327
Index of Subjects	331