

Contents

Preface by Michael Stausberg	vii
Contributors	ix
A Note on the Use of Italics and Diacritics	xi
1. Religion in Bombay/Mumbai: A Scenario Michael Stausberg	1
2. Beyond Diversity—Precarious Belonging and Religious Conjunctions: Dalits in Dharavi Martin Fuchs	62
3. Does Violence Beget the Ghetto? Evidence from Ethnography in Mumbra Sumanya Anand Velamur	84
4. Encountering Religious Difference in the City: Some Reflections on the Participation of Ismaili Muslims in Islamic Revivalism in Mumbai David J. Strohl	103
5. Twelver Shia Muslims' Right to the City: Public Performance, Media Practices, and Urban Atmospheres in Mumbai Patrick Eisenlohr	120
6. Middle Class Muslims in Mumbai: Three Forms of Engagement with Islam Tanvi Patel-Banerjee	138
7. 'God is with the Patient People': Festival, Class, and Interreligious Engagement Raminder Kaur and Syed Mohammed Faisal	155
8. Transgressive Spaces: Women's Organizations and Intentional Interventions in Politics of Interreligious Marriage Gopika Solanki	175

9. Strategic Roadside Shrines in High-Risk Zones: Baba for Peace Anna Charlotta Laine	193
10. Taxis as Public Micro-Spaces of Religion: Practices, Symbols, and Communication Michael Stausberg	215
11. Movement and Place-Making: Multiple Crossings in the Lives of Mumbai's ISKCON Members Claire C. Robison	239
12. Towards the Apocalyptic: Myth, Metaphor, and the Dystopic in Contemporary Mumbai Literature Heinz Werner Wessler	256
13. A Hole in the Wall: Religion in the Poetry of Arun Kolatkar William Elison	276
Index	297