

Contents

Contributors, ix

Introduction, 3
Michael Jerryson

1. Buddhism and War, 17
Paul Demiéville
2. Making Merit through Warfare According to the Ārya-Bodhisattva-gocara-upāyaviśaya-vikurvaṇa-nirdeśa Sūtra, 59
Stephen Jenkins
3. Sacralized Warfare: The Fifth Dalai Lama and the Discourse of Religious Violence, 77
Derek F. Maher
4. Legalized Violence: Punitive Measures of Buddhist Khans in Mongolia, 91
Vesna A. Wallace
5. A Buddhological Critique of “Soldier-Zen” in Wartime Japan, 105
Brian Daizen Victoria

6. Buddhists in China during the Korean War (1951–1953), 131
Xue Yu

7. Onward Buddhist Soldiers: Preaching to the Sri Lankan Army, 157
Daniel W. Kent

8. Militarizing Buddhism: Violence in Southern Thailand, 179
Michael Jerryson

Afterthoughts, 211
Bernard Faure

Appendix, 227

Bibliography, 229

Index, 241