
Contents

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	ix
Series General Co-Editors' Foreword	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii

Introduction	1
---------------------	----------

COLIN LONG AND SOPHIA LABADI

PART I

Global and local tensions	17
----------------------------------	-----------

1 The magic list of global status: UNESCO, World Heritage and the agendas of states	19
--	-----------

MARC ASKEW

2 Politics and Power: the Hiroshima Peace Memorial (Genbaku Dome) as World Heritage	45
--	-----------

OLWEN BEAZLEY

3 World Heritage, authenticity and post-authenticity: international and national perspectives	66
--	-----------

SOPHIA LABADI

4 An ivory bull's head from Afghanistan: legal and ethical dilemmas in national and globalised heritage	85
--	-----------

JULIETTE VAN KRIEKEN-PIETERS

- 5 Globalising intangible cultural heritage? Between international arenas and local appropriations 97
CHIARA BORTOLOTTI

PART II

Heritage, development and globalisation 115

- 6 Heritage tourism: the dawn of a new era? 117
TIM WINTER

- 7 The globalisation of heritage through tourism: balancing standardisation and differentiation 130
NOEL B. SALAZAR

- 8 The business of heritage and the private sector 147
FIONA STARR

PART III

The future of the past: twenty-first-century challenges 171

- 9 Cultural heritage and the global environmental crisis 173
COLIN LONG AND ANITA SMITH

- 10 Conflict heritage and expert failure 192
LYNN MESKELL

- 11 Material heritage and poverty reduction 202
KATHRYN LAFRENZ SAMUELS

- Index* 218