

Contents

| | |
|--|---------|
| Foreword by Christine Chinkin | page xi |
| Acknowledgements | xiv |
| Abbreviations | xvii |
| Table of cases (international) | xxiii |
| Table of cases (national) | xxx |
| Table of legal instruments | xxxv |
| Introduction | 1 |
| Origins of this project | 2 |
| Scope and content | 8 |
| Post-scriptum on the politics of footnoting | 11 |
| 1 Concepts and definitions | 12 |
| Introduction | 12 |
| International organisations | 13 |
| Definition of international organisations | 14 |
| History of international organisations | 19 |
| The concept of autonomy and international organisations | 32 |
| International human rights law | 34 |
| Humanitarianism | 36 |
| The struggle to end the slave trade and the origins of modern international humanitarianism | 37 |
| Humanitarianism and human rights | 51 |
| Accountability | 52 |
| 2 Human rights obligations of international organisations | 55 |
| Introduction | 55 |
| The meaning of institutional practice | 57 |
| International legal personality | 58 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Autonomy and personality | 58 |
| Legal personality in international decisions | 63 |
| Are there obligations that flow automatically from international legal personality? | 70 |
| Redressing the 'rights-bias' of international legal personality | 72 |
| Obligations arising under the constituent instrument | 73 |
| Express obligations | 74 |
| Implied obligations | 75 |
| Obligations arising under institutional acts | 82 |
| The effects of the human rights obligations of member states | 86 |
| Conclusion | 88 |
| 3 International institutional responsibility | 91 |
| Introduction | 91 |
| Conceptual issues | 93 |
| Wrongful act and breach | 97 |
| Attribution | 99 |
| The general rule | 99 |
| Attribution under Article 6 | 103 |
| Attribution of conduct in the international administration of territory | 122 |
| Attribution of ultra vires conduct | 125 |
| Derivative responsibility | 127 |
| Responsibility of the international organisation in connection with the act of a state or another international organisation | 127 |
| Responsibility of the state in connection with the act of an international organisation | 129 |
| Complicity | 135 |
| Circumstances precluding wrongfulness | 137 |
| Content of responsibility | 139 |
| Implementation of responsibility | 141 |
| Conclusion | 142 |
| 4 UN relief and development operations | 144 |
| Introduction | 144 |
| International law and humanitarian assistance | 148 |
| The Responsibility to Protect | 151 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| The consent of the host state | 153 |
| A right to humanitarian assistance? | 159 |
| UN resolutions | 161 |
| The distinction between natural and man-made disasters | 163 |
| Neutrality and impartiality | 164 |
| The breach of the principle of non-discrimination in the provision of humanitarian assistance to Afghanistan and to Afghan refugees in Pakistan | 169 |
| The history of relief to Afghanistan | 169 |
| The practice of the political organs of the UN | 173 |
| The other two levels of organisational practice: bureaucratic practice and actual conduct | 181 |
| Conclusion | 191 |
| 5 UN peacekeeping operations | 196 |
| Introduction | 196 |
| The question of command and control | 199 |
| Applicable law | 202 |
| Principles and rules of general applicability | 202 |
| Mission-specific obligations | 208 |
| Scope for abuse | 214 |
| Sexual abuse and exploitation | 215 |
| Right to life, freedom from torture and arbitrary detentions | 218 |
| Failure to prevent genocide | 221 |
| Enforcement of international obligations | 223 |
| Domestic and international criminal law | 223 |
| Private third-party claims | 224 |
| Limitations on UN liability | 226 |
| Conclusion | 228 |
| 6 International administrations | 230 |
| Introduction | 230 |
| Definition and typology | 232 |
| The legality of international administrations | 239 |
| Violations of human rights in de jure international administrations | 241 |
| Bosnia and Herzegovina | 244 |
| East Timor | 254 |
| Kosovo | 256 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Conclusion: benign autocracies or international leviathans? | 267 |
| Violation of human rights in de facto international administrations | 269 |
| The administrative structure of refugee camps: 'perfect city' representations and dystopian realities | 270 |
| Human rights in refugee camps | 281 |
| Conclusion | 298 |
| 7 Implementation of UN sanctions | 300 |
| Introduction | 300 |
| The development of UN sanctions over the years | 302 |
| The legality of sanctions | 304 |
| Sanctions and human rights | 306 |
| Comprehensive sanctions | 306 |
| Targeted sanctions | 311 |
| Case law | 315 |
| Conclusion | 319 |
| 8 Accountability | 320 |
| Introduction | 320 |
| Political and administrative controls | 321 |
| Control and oversight under the Charter | 321 |
| The reports of the Secretary General | 323 |
| Investigations and inquiries | 326 |
| General administrative oversight | 329 |
| Semi-judicial administrative processes | 332 |
| An assessment | 334 |
| Control by member states | 336 |
| Judicial control | 343 |
| The review of the acts of the Security Council | 345 |
| The problem of immunity | 351 |
| The doctrine of equivalent protection | 359 |
| Equivalent protection in England | 372 |
| A role for NGOs? | 386 |
| Conclusion | 391 |
| Conclusions | 394 |
| Bibliography | 398 |
| Index | 429 |