

Contents

Contributors	page ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction . . . . .	1
Donald Earl Childress III
PART ONE. THE ROLE OF ETHICS IN PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW
1 Moral Reasoning in International Law . . . . .	11
Roger P. Alford and James Fallows Tierney
2 Between Power and Principle . . . . .	52
Oona A. Hathaway
3 Jus Cogens : International Law's Higher Ethical Norms . . . . .	78
Mary Ellen O'Connell
PART TWO. THE ROLE OF ETHICS IN PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW
4 The Problem of Provenance: The Proper Place of Ethical Reasoning in the Selection of Applicable Law . . . . .	101
Lea Brilmayer
5 Choice of Law as General Common Law: A Reply to Professor Brilmayer . . . . .	125
Michael Steven Green
6 A Reply . . . . .	136
Lea Brilmayer
7 The Natural Law Challenge to Choice of Law . . . . .	142
Perry Dane
8 The Role of Ethics in U.S. Private International Law . . . . .	180
Donald Earl Childress III

PART THREE. NORMATIVE AND THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES

9	Human Rights: Ethical, Political . . . or Legal? First Steps in a Legal Theory of Human Rights . . . . .	211
	Samantha Besson
10	The Ethic of International Law . . . . .	246
	H. Patrick Glenn
	Index	271