

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Introduction: Nationalism, Globalization, and Chinese Traditions in the Twenty-First Century	1
Joseph B. TAMNEY† and Fenggang YANG

PART I

CONFUCIAN REVIVALISM IN CHINA AND BEYOND: POTENTIALS AND REALITIES

A Study of the Renaissance of Traditional Confucian Culture in Contemporary China	33
KANG Xiaoguang
Confucian Spirituality in Contemporary China	75
TU Weiming
The Resilience of Confucianism in Chinese Societies	97
Joseph B. TAMNEY†
From Beijing to Boston: The Future Contributions of the Globalization of New Confucianism	131
John BERTHRONG

PART II

CONFUCIANISM AND RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

The Daoist Encounter with Modernity: Some Issues in the History and Sociology of Daoism in the Modern Era	151
David A. PALMER and Xun LIU

The Modern Significance of Some Basic Concepts in Chinese Buddhism	175
FANG Litian
Indigenization of Imported Religions in China: The Case of Islam and the Hui People	201
JIAN Zhixiang and MA Rong
Protestantism in Modern China as “Foreign Religion” and “Chinese Religion”: Autonomy, Independence, and the Constraints of Foreign Hegemony	229
Daniel H. BAYS
Confucianism, Christianity, and Religious Freedom: Debates in the Transformation Period of Modern China (1900–1920s)	247
LIU Yi
Spiritual Accomplishment in Confucianism and Spiritual Transcendence in Christianity	277
ZHUO Xinping

PART III

THE SOCIAL REALITIES OF RITUAL:
FROM EXEGETIC TO ANALYTIC

Confucian Humaneness (Ren) Across Social Barriers	295
Robert Cummings NEVILLE
The Revival of Confucian Rites in Contemporary China	309
Anna SUN
Religion, Ritual, and the Public Good in China	329
Robert P. WELLER
Index	351