

Contents

1	Introduction – Liberal Democracy and Religious Pluralism: Accommodating or Resisting the Diversity of a Globalising Age?	1
	Monica Mookherjee
Part I	Religious Pluralism in Liberal Democracies: Toleration and the Dynamics of Social Conflict
2	Religions and Liberal Democracy: Reflections on Doctrinal, Institutional and Attitudinal Learning	17
	Veit Bader
3	How Not to Tolerate Religion	47
	Glen Newey
4	On the Muslim Question	65
	Anne Norton
5	Dealing Morally with Religious Differences	77
	Sorin Baiasu
6	Diversity and Equality: ‘Toleration as Recognition’ Reconsidered	103
	Andrea Baumeister
Part II	Cases, Concepts and New Frameworks for Accommodating Religion in Liberal Democracies
7	Modus Vivendi and Religious Conflict	121
	John Horton

8	Negotiating the ‘Sacred’ Cow: Cow Slaughter and the Regulation of Difference in India	137
	Shraddha Chigateri
9	An Ex Post Legem Approach to the Reconciliation of Minority Issues in Contemporary Democracies	161
	Emanuela Ceva
Index		183