

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

1. Introduction: Religious, Racial, and Ethnic Identities of the New Second Generation 1
Russell Jeung, Carolyn Chen, and Jerry Z. Park

PART I: RELIGIOUS PRIMACY

2. The Diversity-Affirming Latino: Ethnic Options and the Ethnic Transcendent Expression of American Latino Religious Identity 25
Gerardo Marti
3. Islam Is to Catholicism as Teflon Is to Velcro: Religion and Culture among Muslims and Latinas 46
R. Stephen Warner, Elise Martel, and Rhonda E. Dugan
4. Second-Generation Asian Americans and Judaism 69
Helen K. Kim and Noah Leavitt

PART II: RACIALIZED RELIGION

5. Second-Generation Latin@ Faith Institutions and Identity Formations 93
Milagros Peña and Edwin I. Hernández
6. Latinos and Faith-Based Recovery from Gangs 113
Edward Flores

PART III: HYBRIDIZED ETHNORELIGION

7. Racial Insularity and Ethnic Faith: The Emerging Korean
American Religious Elite 135
Jerry Z. Park

8. Second-Generation Filipino American Faithful: Are They “Praying and Sending”?	156
Joaquin Jay Gonzalez III
9. Second-Generation Korean American Christians’ Communities: Congregational Hybridity	176
Sharon Kim and Rebecca Y. Kim
PART IV: MINORITY RELIGIONS AND FAMILY TRADITIONING
10. Second-Generation Chinese Americans: The Familism of the Nonreligious	197
Russell Jeung
11. “I Would Pay Homage, Not Go All ‘Bling’”: Vietnamese American Youth Reflect on Family and Religious Life	222
Linda Ho Peché
12. Religion in the Lives of Second-Generation Indian American Hindus	241
Khyati Y. Joshi
About the Contributors	259
Index	263