

Contents

List of figures and tables	viii
Notes of Contributors	x
1 Introduction Alexandros-Andreas Kyrtis and Sokratis Koniordos	1
PART I
Intellectual and institutional settings	13
2 Key trends in European social thought Nigel Dodd	15
3 European sociology: its size, shape, and ‘excellence’ Christian Fleck and Barbara Hönig	40
4 European social science as a transnational field of research Johan Heilbron	67
5 Towards a European society: what can European sociology tell us? William Outhwaite	80
6 The ‘linguistic turn’ and continental sociology: the question of agency and structure Vassilios Romanos	98
7 European construction and sociology Jan Spurk	116
8 Europe and the sociology of modernity Peter Wagner	127

PART II

Thematic variations 141

- 9 European sociologies and social theories of work 143
Finn Bowring and Ralph Fevre
- 10 Sociology of religion in Europe 158
Roberto Cipriani
- 11 The emergence of a European social movement research field 172
Mario Diani and Ondřej Čísar
- 12 Is there a European medical sociology? 196
Nicolas Henckes and Isabelle Baszanger
- 13 The spatial turn and the sociology of built environment 211
Martina Löw and Silke Steets
- 14 The European contribution to environmental sociology 225
Michael Redclift and Graham Woodgate
- 15 Welfare state studies in European sociology 238
Chiara Saraceno
- 16 A European sociology of migration? Not yet, not quite 252
Giuseppe Sciortino
- 17 Social stratification research in Europe 267
John Scott

PART III

Regional variations 283

- 18 Italian sociology and European sociology 285
Alberta Andreotti and David Benassi
- 19 Nordic sociology 303
Patrik Aspers, Jukka Gronow, Lars Bo Kaspersen, Lars Mjøset, Guðbjörg Linda Rafnsdóttir and Aino Sinnemäki
- 20 Sociology in the Netherlands 318
Jos de Haan

21	The French contribution to European sociology since 1945 Michelle Dobré and Aldo Haesler	330
22	Sociology in Germany (1949 to present) Joachim Fischer	342
23	Portuguese sociology: a non-cesurial perspective José Luís Garcia, João Carlos Graça, Helena Mateus Jerónimo and Rafael Marques	357
24	Contemporary sociology in Spain Salvador Giner and Manuel Pérez Yruela	376
25	The late ascent of the UK to a sociological great power: a comment from the margins Alexandros-Andreas Kyrtis	391
26	No longer between East and West: dialectics and paradoxes in Polish sociology Janusz Mucha and Łukasz Krzyżowski	407
27	The re-emergence of sociology in Russia Vadim Radaev	426
	Index	441