

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix

INTRODUCTION

The 'Many Tongues' of Global Pentecostalism	3
Michael Wilkinson

NEGOTIATION

Pentecostals and Political Culture in Sub-Saharan Africa: Nigeria, Zambia, and Kenya as Case Studies	17
Richard Burgess
Pentecostalism and the Challenges Facing Muslim-Christian Relations in Nigeria	43
A. Christian van Gorder
Global Pentecostal Networks and the Problems of Culture: The Church of Pentecost in Ghana and Abroad	71
Girish Daswani

EXPANSION

From Bethel Temple, Seattle to Bethel Church of Indonesia: Missionary Legacy of an Independent Church	93
David A. Reed
Resisting Globalization: The Pentecostal Holiness Church's Mission and the 'Anti-Christian Movement' in China (1920–30)	117
Connie Au

The Role of American Evangelist Tommy Hicks in the Development of Argentine Pentecostalism	135
Seth N. Zielicke

CONTEXTUALIZATION

A New Kind of Ministry for a New Kind of Context: The Rise of New Indigenous Churches in West Africa	155
Joseph Bosco Bangura
Standing at the Crux: Pentecostalism and Identity Formation in an African Diaspora Christian Community	171
Thomas Aechnert
Becoming Pastora : Latina Pentecostal Women's Stories from Newark, New Jersey	195
Otto Maduro
Hybridity, Migration, and Transnational Relations: Re-thinking Canadian Pentecostalism from a Latina/o Perspective	211
Néstor Medina
Index	227