

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
Contributors	ix
Series editors' foreword	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
 Remembering genocide	 1
NIGEL ELTRINGHAM AND PAM MACLEAN
 1 'No man's land' and the creation of partitioned histories in India/Pakistan	 19
PIPPA VIRDEE
 2 Three films, one genocide: Remembering the Armenian Genocide through Ravished Armenia(s)	 38
DONNA-LEE FRIEZE
 3 Memorial stories: Commemorating the Rwanda Genocide through fiction	 54
NICKI HITCHCOTT
 4 To be hunted like animals: Samuel and Joseph Chanesman remember their survival in the Polish countryside during the Holocaust	 71
PAM MACLEAN
 5 Set in stone? The intergenerational and institutional transmission of Holocaust memory	 92
AVRIL ALBA
 6 National memory and museums: Remembering settler colonial genocide of Indigenous peoples in Canada	 112
TRICIA LOGAN

vi Contents

7	Memory at the site: Witnessing, education and the repurposing of Tuol Sleng and Choeung Ek in Cambodia	131
	ELENA LESLEY-ROZEN
8	Contested notions of genocide and commemoration: The case of the Herero in Namibia	152
	HENNING MELBER
9	Burying genocide: Official remembrance and reconciliation in Australia	176
	DAMIEN SHORT
10	Bodies of evidence: Remembering the Rwandan Genocide at Murambi	200
	NIGEL ELTRINGHAM
	Index	220