

Contents

List of illustrations	xi
Preface	xii
1 Introduction: a Muslim researcher in a hybrid field	1
Brief remarks on positionality and limitations	4
Conceptual framework: jihād and youth	7
2 The quest for a community versus composite nationalism	13
Contending impacts of diverse notions of community:
Ummah as a myth?	13
The rise of Muslims' discontent with the British	18
Maulana Abul Kalam Azad: the introduction of Muslim
politics	23
Maulana Husain Ahmad Madani: 'composite nationalism'
as jihād	26
Adjustment to the new status of being a 'citizen minority'	32
The experience of Kerala	37
Summary	40
3 The life-space context and hegemonic discourses	47
Political subcultures and impediments to Muslim politics	48
Political discourses: practising and participating in
democracy	53
Ideological discourses: otherness and Hindu nationalism	58
Discourses on socio-economic backwardness: discrimination and
marginalisation	70
The ideal of secularism and its predicaments in India	79
Summary	80

x	Contents
4	North Indian Muslim youth and everyday jihād	88
	The interlinkage between the middle class, citizenship and education 92
	Liberal versus illiberal spaces: the political stage of traditional and non-traditional political indicators 102
	Summary 120
5	Argumentative jihād and Muslim women in Kerala	126
	The Kerala model 126
	Reform through jihād 142
	Emergence of 'public women' and the fight for citizenship in new public spaces 159
	Summary 169
6	Operationalising the sense of citizenship: from Delhi to Kerala	177
	Voting myths 178
	Collectivity and association 179
	Political awareness 180
	Sense of political efficacy and trust 181
	The stance from Islamic ideals and socio-political concerns 185
	Agency dynamics 188
	Concluding remarks on the sense of citizenship 194
7	Conclusion	200
	Index	204