

CONTENTS

List of Figures	page x
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Inciting Speech in International Law and Social Science	1
1.1 Criminal Accountability for Inciting Speech	1
1.2 The Rigors of Prosecuting Speech Crimes at International Tribunals	7
1.3 Social Science, Part I: Understanding the Legal Process	12
1.4 Social Science, Part II: Studying the Effects of Inciting Speech	16
1.5 Defining the Terms	19
1.6 The Role of Social Science in Law: Concluding Remarks	22
2 Direct and Public Incitement to Commit Genocide: An Inchoate Crime	25
2.1 Introduction	25
2.2 The Legacy of Nuremberg	26
2.3 Direct and Public Incitement to Commit Genocide at the ICTR	34
2.4 Reverse Engineering Specific Intent from Consequences	44
2.5 The “Ghost of Causation” in International Speech Crimes Cases	49
2.6 The Nature of the Utterance Itself: Incitement and Austin’s Theory of Speech Acts	56
2.7 Causation in Completed Speech Crimes	67
3 Causation in International Speech Crimes	71
3.1 Introduction	71
3.2 Causation in Anglo-American Criminal Law	72
3.3 Causation in International Criminal Law	79
3.4 Cause and Effect Beyond a Reasonable Doubt	89
3.5 How International Law Knows About Causes	97
4 Instigating Persecution: The Prosecution Case Against Vojislav Šešelj	100
4.1 Introduction	100
4.2 Instigating Crimes Against Humanity	101

4.3	Cirque du Šešelj	107
4.4	The Prosecution Case Against Vojislav Šešelj	115
4.5	Closing Arguments	126
4.6	The Trial Chamber Judgment in Šešelj	132
4.7	Reflections on Law, Science and Causation	137
5	Metaphors, Agency and Mental Causation in Speech Crimes Trials	147
5.1	Introduction	147
5.2	Metaphorical Language in Speech Crimes Cases	149
5.3	When Juliet Is Stormy: Law's Ambivalence Towards Metaphors	152
5.4	Metaphors and Cognitive Schemas	159
5.5	The Sequence of Mental and Physical Causation in Speech Crimes	165
5.6	Agency, Intervening Causes and Multiple Causation	171
6	Social Research in International Speech Crimes Trials	179
6.1	Introduction	179
6.2	Experts in the International Criminal Courtroom	181
6.3	An Enhanced Translation Service: Language Expertise at the International Tribunal for Rwanda	189
6.4	Judicial Gatekeeping and the Propaganda Expert	198
6.5	Prosecutors and Defense Attorneys on Social Researchers	208
6.6	Common Sense and Judicial Gatekeeping	213
6.7	The Ever-Elusive Holistic Approach to Speech	220
7	The Social Science of Inciting Speech and Persuasion	223
7.1	Introduction	223
7.2	Ethos, Pathos and Logos: The Social Science of Persuasive Speech	225
7.3	The Distinctive Effects of Different Kinds of Political Speech	234
7.4	Findings on the Psychological Effects of Speech: US Population	239
7.5	Findings on the Psychological Effects of Speech: Serbian Population	241
7.6	Revenge Speech, Culture and Indirect Causation	244
8	A New Model for Preventing and Punishing International Speech Crimes	248
8.1	Introduction	248
8.2	Inchoate Speech Crimes and the Promise of Prevention	249
8.3	Inchoate Speech Crimes Through the Lens of Social Science	260
8.4	Infelicitous Modes of Liability for Completed Speech Crimes: Co-perpetration, JCE, Instigating/Inducing and Soliciting	265
8.5	Felicitous Modes of Liability for Completed Speech Crimes I: Ordering	277

8.6	Felicitous Modes of Liability for Completed Speech Crimes II: Aiding and Abetting	282
8.7	Causation, Intention and Risk in Accessory Liability	286
8.8	Towards a Contextual Jurisprudence	299
	Appendices	305
	Bibliography	315
	Index	340