

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements page x

Introduction 1

A Context and Plan of Work 1

B On Methodology 6

- 1 Agamben and Philosophical Archaeology 7
- 2 Deleuze and Guattari: Machinic Assemblage and How It Functions 8
- 3 Building Blocks, Paradigms: Time-Travel Machines? 11

1 Paradigms of Global Constitutionalism 12

A Situating Global Constitutionalism 12

B Theories of Constitutionalism: Questions, Gaps, Issues 18

- 1 Individuals within Global Constitutionalism 19
 - a) The State of the Art: The Individual as an Equilibrium Point 19
 - b) From Active Inclusion to Confrontation of Modalities Exclusion 24
 - c) Private Sponsorship of Refugees as a Confrontation of Modalities of Exclusion 28
- 2 States in Global Constitutionalism 31
 - a) Overview of Current Debates in International Constitutionalism 31
 - b) State Thinking as a Structuring Device 36
 - (1) Bourdieu's Methodological Remarks 37
 - (2) Constitution of the State 38
 - (3) Characteristics of the State 39
 - (a) Symbolic Violence/Power 39
 - (b) Public/Official and Universal 40
 - (4) Reading the Global with Bourdieu 41

(a) Transnational Societal Constitutionalism	42
(b) Postnational Pluralism	45
c) Conclusions	49
3 Politics of International Constitutionalism	50
a) Law over Politics in International Constitutionalism	51
(1) Considering Democracy	55
(2) The Active Subject and the Political	58
(a) Schmitt: Friend and Enemy	59
(b) Agamben: Whatever Singularity and Belonging	62
(c) Prospects of Global Constitutionalism in Light of Visions of the Political	67
b) Conclusions	71
C Distilling Paradigms	72
2 Mechanisms and Modalities of Human Rights in Global Constitutionalism	75
A Introduction	75
B State of the Art: Human Rights in International Constitutionalism	76
C Constitutions and the Functioning of Rights: Domestic Experience	79
1 Methodological Remarks and the Functioning of Constitutions	79
2 Specifics of Fundamental Rights Functioning	84
D Beyond the Domestic Constitutional Experience	89
1 Approaching the Functioning of Human Rights from a Sociological Perspective	89
2 How Human Rights Function within the Global Context: Three Possible Answers	90
a) Luhmann and Two Ways	90
(1) Maintaining a Global Normative System	94
(2) Disappearance of the Need for Law	95
(3) Summary and Transition	96
b) Thornhill and the Fusion of Law and Politics	97
c) Teubner and Constitutionalisation without Politics	101
3 (Un)certainities of Human Rights Functioning	105
E Conclusions	107

3 The Other of Human Rights and Global Constitutionalism	110
A Before the Law: Controlling Power in Ancient Greece	111
1 From Community to Individual in Ancient Greece	111
2 From Ancient Greece to Contemporary International Law	121
B Beyond the Law: Confronting Power in Islamic Tradition	122
1 Islam, Power and Governance: Historical Experience	123
a) Moral Technologies of the Self	127
b) Separation of Powers in Islam	128
2 Islamic Tradition and Lessons for Contemporary Global Governance	136
C Conclusions	140
4 From Inclusion to Belonging	142
Bibliography	149
Index	163