

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	x
Janice Peterson

PART I: EXPLORING CONNECTIONS: INSTITUTIONALISM AND FEMINISM

1.	Institutionalism and Feminism	3
	William M. Dugger
2.	Institutionalism: A Useful Foundation for Feminist Economics?	19
	Charles Whalen and Linda Whalen
3.	Radical Institutionalism and Postmodern Feminist Theory	35
	Doug Brown

PART II: EXTENDING OUR ANALYSIS

4.	Technology and Gender in Institutional Economics	55
	William Waller
5.	Feminism and Science Reconsidered: Insights from the Margins	77
	Paulette Olson
6.	Cultural Contours of Race, Gender, and Class Distinctions: A Critique of Moynihan and Other Functionalist Views	95
	Ann Jennings and Dell Champlin

PART III: EXAMINING THE ISSUES OF GENDER

7.	Traditional Economic Theories and Issues of Gender: The Status of Women in the United States and the Former Soviet Union Janice Peterson	113
8.	Equality and the Women's Movement: What's Missing? Gladys Parker Foster	128
9.	Radical Institutionalism, Sociology, and the Dual Career Couple Jacqueline Bloom Stanfield	142
10.	The Status of Women in Japan Bernadette Lanciaux	157
	Conclusion Doug Brown	177
	Index	182