

THE POLITICAL KINGDOM IN UGANDA

A Study of Bureaucratic Nationalism

DAVID E. APTER

FRANK CASS
LONDON • PORTLAND, OR.

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations		ix
Preface to the First Edition		xi
Preface to the Second Edition		xvii
1997 Introduction		xxiii
Chapter 1	The Political Kingdom and the Politics of Provincialism	3
Chapter 2	The Social and Economic Environment	29
Chapter 3	Missionary and Mercantile in East Africa: The Discovery And Engagement of Institutions	62
Chapter 4	The Traditional Setting: Concepts and Hypotheses	84
Chapter 5	Fissures Without Fracture: The First Political Groups in Buganda	108
Chapter 6	The Anatomy of Internal Conflict in Buganda	134
Chapter 7	The Development of a National Government	159
Chapter 8	The Defense of Buganda Interests: The Campaign Against Trusteeship and Closer Union	171
Chapter 9	The Growth of Economic Nationalism	181
Chapter 10	Neo-Traditionalism and the Beginnings of Modern Nationalism	195
Chapter 11	Crisis and the Emerging State, I	216
Chapter 12	Crisis and the Emerging State, II	234
Chapter 13	Authority and Men: A Battle of Roles and Personalities	263

C O N T E N T S

Chapter 14	Political Parties in Uganda: The Search for Leadership and Solidarity	301
Chapter 15	The Buganda Government and the Development of Constitutional Government	349
Chapter 16	The Constitutional Approach to Nation Building: Ideas Without Ideals	390
Chapter 17	Toward Democracy and Independence	435
Appendix		479
Index		489