

Theorizing Self in Samoa
Emotions, Genders, and Sexualities

Jeannette Marie Mageo

Ann Arbor

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN PRESS

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments ix

INTRODUCTION

1. A Theory of Cultural Selves 3

SELF SYSTEMS AND DEVELOPMENT

2. Ontological Lexicons: Essentializing and Eliding 37
3. Moral Lexicons: Negatives and Double Negatives 52
4. Moral Discourse: Classification or Narration 69
5. Contextual Discourses and the Tropics of Childhood 81
6. Strategic Discourses and Cultural Antinomies 102

SELVES IN CULTURE HISTORY

7. Bodies, Selves, and Sexualities in Pre-Christian Samoa 119
8. Foreign Incursions on Samoan Discourses of Self 141
9. Possession and Reconfiguring Moral Discourse 164
10. Entertainment and Reconfiguring Informal Discourse 191
11. Lives and Reconfiguring Strategic Discourse 218

Notes 241

Glossary 263

References 265

Index 283