

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editor's Preface	IV
Chapter One / THOUGHTS AND METHODS	I
I. Preliminaries	I
II. The advent of the ethnomusicologist	5
Theology and humanism as fundaments of earlier education – early music histories: Martini, Hawkins, Burney, Laborde, Forkel, Krause, Fétis, Hullah, Ambros – early non-historical sources: Rousseau and the romantics, Villotteau, Jones, doctoral theses – beginnings of modern method with Ellis, Edison and Fewkes-Gilman-Stumpf – phonographic archives – change of name from comparative musicology to ethnomusicology.
III. The ethnomusicologist's workshop	16
Field work – phonograph, gramophone, tape – tone measurements – acoustical devices: forks, Tonmesser , tonometer, monochord – visual devices: oscilloscope, photophonography, stroboscope, electronic counter – editing – transcribing – logarithms and cents – savarts – Reiner's music rule – notation.
IV. The question of origin	33
Theories – tone languages – mouth music – drum languages etc. – absence of singing – prehistory – radio carbon method of dating – fluorine method – stone and metal ages – anthropology – culture changes – the "savages" – primitive and non-literate man – scriptless society and folk music – monogenism and polygenism – Kulturkreislehre – "races".
Chapter Two / EARLY MUSIC	49
V. The oldest music: tumbling strains	49
Major and minor – tumbling strains or stair melodies – high and low – domestication – triadic and tetradic octaves.

VI. The oldest music: one-step melodies	59
Terminology – sharpening the pitch – affixes and infixes – tetrachords – bare fifths and sixths – pathogenic and logogenic – meaningless syllables – burdens – glossolalia – repetitive style – flexa – ontological remarks – imitation and dramatization – animal dirges or epikkedia .
VII. Conservatism and magic	76
Palaeolithic survivals – the fight of music and poetry – strict tradition – magic – charms against sickness, death and dearth – mana – unnatural singing – kazoos
VIII. Vocal mannerisms	85
Von Hornbostel's and Merriam's descriptions – European, Asiatic, Australian, Polynesian, Melanesian, African styles – quilisma , pressus , plica – tessitura – proposed terminology – tempo and intensity – sense and value – aesthetical aspects
IX. Instruments	91
Literature – extensions – other rudiments – male and female – cosmology – connotations of the flute – of stinged instruments and jaw's harp – conflicting connotations – bull roarer – gourd rattle – on the way to melody – finger holes – foot and inches – Blasquintentheorie – tuning of strings – isotony – tuning of xylophones – East African and Indonesian parallels – chimes – the lithophone of the Musée de l'Homme – panoramic view – Europe and Africa – early instrumental music – zanza
X. Rhythm and form	III
General notions – rhythmic patterns – quintary rhythm – downbeat and upbeat – metric alteration – meter and time – additive meters – “fascinating rhythm” – art and folk music – cycles – strictness and freedom – overall patterns – isorhythm – panoramic view – form – repetition – stimulus and narcotic medieval parallels: lai , estampie , lied , rondeau – antiphony and response – variation – zanza cyclic forms
Chapter Three / ON THE WAY	132
Growth, personality, art	132
Culture changes – musical criticism – musical contests – individualism and art – copyright

TABLE OF CONTENTS

XI

Chapter Four / THE FATE OF SECONDAL AND TERTIAL

PATTERNS

143

The widening nucleus – “triadic and fanfare melodies” – tonal anatomy and physiology – chains – double, triple, quadruple, quintuple and sextuple thirds – skeletons and infixes – pentatonism and heptatonism – German chorale dialect – Landino third – four-line notation – six-five patterns – triadic octaves

Chapter Five / THE FATE OF QUARTAL AND QUINTAL

PATTERNS

159

Disjunction and conjunction – quartal chains – chains of fifths – hybrids – modulation – culture chance once more

Chapter Six / CENTRIC MELODIES

168

Gregorian tenor melodies – the concept of mesè

Chapter Seven / POLYPHONY

175

Vertical and horizontal – distribution – isochronous conductus – parallels – drones – grounds – alternation and canon – Stimmtausch – heterophony

Chapter Eight / CROSS- OR POLYRHYTHM

192

Independent accompaniment – hemiola – “syncopation” – Afro-Indian concordances

Chapter Nine / PROFESSIONAL MUSIC AND MUSICAL SYSTEMS

200

Semi-professionals and professionals – bards – minstrelsy – segregation and discrimination – professional wallers – musical vocabularies – pitch syllables – concomitant method of learning

Chapter Ten / ‘PROGRESS’?

210

The fading theory of evolution – culture graft – progress – evidences against progress – our gain is our loss

A note on Bibliography

223

Index of Names

224