

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
1. Introduction	1
1.1 Problems of language competition	1
1.2. Object and aim of the study	3
1.3 Linguistic situation in Nigeria	4
2. The dominance of English.....	9
2.1 The situation of English in Nigeria	9
2.2 Attitudes of Nigerians towards English	17
2.3 Problems related to the dominance of English	18
2.4 Questionnaire findings	23
2.5 The future of English in Nigeria	24
3. Nigerian Pidgin: Role, status and development	25
3.1 The emergence and character of Nigerian Pidgin	25
3.2 The spread of Nigerian Pidgin	27
3.3 Factors leading to the spread of Nigerian Pidgin	28
3.4 Expanding functions of Nigerian Pidgin	30
3.5 Limitations of Nigerian Pidgin	31
3.6 Questionnaire findings	35
3.7 The prospects of Nigerian Pidgin	35

4	Hausa in Nigeria: Its development and prospects	37
4.1	The current situation of Hausa	37
4.2	The spread of Hausa	40
4.3	Problems related to the use and spread of Hausa	51
4.4	Questionnaire findings	54
4.5	Language and ethnicity correspondence in Hausa	56
4.6	Conclusion	56
5.	Igbo: Its development, crises and conflicts	59
5.1	The Igbo language.	59
5.2	Questionnaire findings	72
5.3	Recent efforts to promote Igbo	73
5.4	The future of the Igbo language	74
6.	Yoruba in Nigeria: Its development and stagnation	77
6.1	The place of the Yoruba language	77
6.2	More recent efforts to promote Yoruba	85
6.3	The limitations of the expansion of Yoruba	87
6.4	Questionnaire findings	90
6.5	Conclusion	91
7	Analysis and discussion of questionnaire data	93
7.1	Survey instruments	93
7.2	Research problems and validation procedure	95
7.3	Emerging profiles of language preference	96

8	Nigeria's minority languages endangered by English, Nigerian Pidgin and the major languages	111
8.1	Patterns of language displacement in Nigeria	112
8.2	Consequences of the expansion of English, Nigerian Pidgin and Hausa	112
8.3	The collection of data	116
8.4	Outline of apparent language use	117
8.5	Implications of linguistic domination	119
8.6	Conclusion	120
9	Perspectives on language politics in Nigeria	121
9.1	The politics of 'national' and 'major' languages	121
9.2	Language problems	128
9.3	Language and nation-building	129
9.4	Policy implementation	130
9.5	The role of language in education	132
9.6	The place of indigenous languages in teaching and learning ...	133
9.7	Early bilingual education for Nigeria	134
9.8	Attitudes towards the indigenous languages	136
9.9	Language and ethnicity	137
9.10	Some lessons from India	139
9.11	Summary	140
	Appendix: Questionnaire data	141
	References	167
	Index	179