

---

Contents

---

---

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| List of contributors   | vii       |
| Acknowledgements   | ix        |
| Genetics and governance: an introduction  | 1     |
| ROBIN BUNTON AND ALAN PETERSEN  |           |
| PART I   |           |
| Ethics, risk and governance  | 29 |
| 1 Ethics of clinical genetics: the spirit of the professionand trials of suitability from 1970 to 2000                      | 31    |
| PIIA JALLINOJA  |           |
| 2 Risk management and ethics in high-tech antenatal care:the Finnish experience   | 47    |
| ILPO HELÉN  |           |
| 3 The first genetic screening in Finland: its execution,evaluation and some possible implications for liberalgovernment | 65    |
| SEPPO POUTANEN  |           |
| 4 Choice as responsibility: genetic testing as citizenshipthrough familial obligation and the management of risk            | 79    |
| JESSICA POLZER  |           |
| PART II  |           |
| Risk, population and identity  | 93 |
| 5 From eugenics to the government of genetic risks  | 95    |
| THOMAS LEMKE  |           |

|    |   |            |
|----|---|------------|
| 6  | The sociology of the new genetics: conceptualizing the links between reproduction, gender and bodiesELIZABETH ETTORRE       | 107        |
| 7  | Whose right to choose? The new genetics, prenatal testing and people with learning difficultiesLINDA WARD                   | 121        |
| 8  | 'New' genetics meets the old underclass: findings from a study of genetic outreach services in rural KentuckySUSAN E. KELLY | 137        |
|    | PART III   |            |
|    | Knowledge, governance and the future   | 153 |
| 9  | Public health and the 'new genetics': balancing individual and collective outcomesEVAN WILLIS                               | 155        |
| 10 | More than code: from genetic reductionism to complex biological systemsMARTHA R. HERBERT                                    | 171        |
| 11 | Emerging forms of governance in genomics and post-genomics: structures, trends, perspectivesHERBERT GOTTHEIS                | 189        |
|    | Index  | 209        |