

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
Methodology	5
Definitions and book structure	8
PART I DIMENSIONS OF DIVERSITY	13
1 Power, Consent and Freedom	15
The faces of power	16
Brothels as business enterprises	18
Power, oppression, the subject and the law	35
2 Patterns of Pimping	42
Towards a definition of 'pimping'	45
Pimping and prostitution: some general remarks	58
3 Independent Street Prostitution	61
Contract and control	61
Children and independent street prostitution	67
4 Independent Prostitution and Tourism	74
Informal tourist-related prostitution	76
Parasites' paradise	82
5 Power and Freedom at the Apex of the Prostitution Hierarchy	88
The entrepreneurial prostitute's business	88
Power and control within transactions	91

The sources of control	100
Choice and power	103
PART II PROSTITUTION AND THE EROTICIZATION OF SOCIAL DEATH	107
Introduction	109
6 Narratives of Power and Exclusion	116
Patriarchy, rape and the prostitution contract	118
Imaginary communities	125
Otherness, objectification and desire	134
7 Eroticizing Prostitute Use	138
'Fucking dirty whores'	140
Eroticizing the prostitute as 'phallic woman'	148
'Tarts with hearts' and 'sexual healers'	151
Secrets and lies	154
The contradictions of 'clienting'	158
8 Through Western Eyes: Honour, Gender and Prostitute Use	163
Ritual reinscriptions	165
The pursuit of honour	169
The case of female sex tourism	180
Contradictions and constraints	183
9 Diversity, Dialectics and Politics	189
Collective political action	190
Policy debate and political strategies	196
Moral blame	206
Notes	211
References	214
Index	225