

CONTENTS

1 Victorian Environments	1
Grace Moore and Michelle J. Smith
Part I Acclimatization	17
2 The Environmentally Modified Self: Acclimatization and Identity in Early Victorian Literature	19
Roslyn Jolly
3 Rabbits and the Rise of Australian Nativism	39
Alexis Harley
4 "Our Antipodes": Settler Colonial Environments in Victorian Travel Writing	57
Anna Johnston

Part II Mapping	77
5 Ubiquitous Theft: The Consumption of London in Mayhew's Underworld Lesa Scholl	79
6 "Mountains might be marked by a drop of glue": Blindness, Touch and Tactile Maps Vanessa Warne	97
7 Exhuming the City: The Politics and Poetics of Graveyard Clearance Haewon Hwang	115
8 Speculative Viewing: Victorians' Encounters with Coral Reefs Kathleen Davidson	135
Part III Environmental Aesthetics	161
9 The Nature of Sensation Fiction: Botanical Textuality in Mary Elizabeth Braddon's The Doctor's Wife (1864) and Rhoda Broughton's Red as a Rose Is She (1870) Kirby-Jane Hallum	163
10 Craft and the Colonial Environment: Natural Fancywork in the Australian Album Molly Duggins	185

Part IV Food, Hunger, and Contamination	215
11 Inorganic Bodies, Longing to Become Organic: Hunger and Environment in Thomas Carlyle's The French Revolution	217
Hayley Rudkin
12 "Yet Was It Human?" Bankim, Hunter and the Victorian Famine Ideology of Anandamath	237
Upamanyu Pablo Mukherjee
13 Adulteration and the Late-Victorian Culture of Risk in Jude the Obscure	259
Tim Dolin
Bibliography	281
Index	307