

Contents

Preface	x
List of contributors	xiii
1 Introduction: Reconciliation: Civil war by other means PAUL QUIGLEY	1
PART I
Post-civil war reconciliation in our time	15
2 Reconciliation challenges in post-genocide Rwanda JOSEPH SEBARENZI	17
3 War and peace in Colombia: The impact of the peace accords on local communities PAULA LEZAMA AND RACHEL MAY	35
4 Political violence, civil war and the paths of national reconciliation in Côte d'Ivoire DJANÉ DIT FATOGOMA ADOU	49
PART II
Problems of reconciliation in twentieth-century Europe	65
5 The Russian Civil War: Is national reconciliation possible? SERGEY VEDERNIKOV	67
6 Franco's peace: Fighting the Spanish Civil War, 1939–1975 JULIUS RUIZ	80

7	The Italian Social Republic, the Second World War and the memory of the “vanquished”	98
	FEDERICO CIAVATTONI
 PART III
	Memory and reconciliation after the US Civil War	113
8	Lee returns to the Capitol: A case study in reconciliation and its limits	115
	ROBERT COLBY
9	The persistence of memory: African Americans and transitional justice efforts in Franklin County, Pennsylvania	131
	HILARY GREEN
10	No more shall the winding rivers be red: The role of regionalism in sectional reconciliation	150
	MATTHEW E. STANLEY
11	Beyond memory: The U.S. South and the emotional politics of reconciliation	167
	SARAH BOWMAN
 PART IV
	The US Civil War in transnational perspective	185
12	To “heal the wounded spirit”: Former Confederates’ international perspective on Reconstruction and reconciliation	187
	ANN L. TUCKER
13	“Save our heritage”: Contested reconciliation of mid-nineteenth-century separatist movements	203
	NIELS EICHHORN
14	Reconciliation as a political strategy: The United States after its Civil War	217
	WILLIAM A. BLAIR

PART V

Processes of reconciliation 233

- 15 Fostering peace after civil war: When should civil society
participate? 235

MATTHEW HODDIE AND JOSEPH RUDOLPH, JR.

- 16 United we heal, divided we reconcile: Group solidarity and the problem of status after civil conflicts 251

JAMES HAWDON

Index 265