

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	viii
List of contributors	x
1 Right-wing terrorism in historical perspective: An introduction Johannes Dafinger and Moritz Florin	1
SECTION 1
In search of origins: Right-wing terror(ism) in an era of war and revolution	17
2 Terrorist entanglements: Socialist perspectives on state and right-wing violence in the late Russian Empire Vitalij Fastovskij	19
3 Oppression, terror, and “split delegitimization”: The troubled relationship between the conservative authoritarian state and its right-wing critics in Hungary between 1919 and 1945 Béla Bodó	42
4 Terror and antisemitic student violence in East-Central Europe, 1919–1923 Roland Clark	70
5 Section commentary: Right-wing extremism, the question of power, and multiple entanglements Felicitas Fischer von Weikersthal	91

SECTION 2

Right-wing terrorism and fascism 97

- 6 Did the Polish Minister of the Interior have to be killed? The activities of the Organization of Ukrainian Nationalists in the 1930s 99
Magdalena Gibiec
- 7 Marseilles 1934: The death of the King 115
Mario Jareb
- 8 Trading in arms, trading in terror: The Cagoule and right-wing terrorism in France 129
Gayle K. Brunelle and Annette Finley-Croswhite
- 9 Section commentary: The transnational space of fascism and terrorism 149
Ángel Alkalde

SECTION 3

Recent trends in right-wing terrorism: Eastern and Western Europe 157

- 10 "Glocal militancy"? Transnational links of German far-right terrorism 159
Daniel Koehler
- 11 "Of hobbits and tigers": Right-wing extremism and terrorism in Italy since the mid-1970s 174
Tobias Hof
- 12 Transnational violence and the German connection: National resistance and autonomous nationalists in the Czech Republic 197
Ina Fujdiak and Miroslav Mareš
- 13 "Praise the saints": The cumulative momentum of transnational extreme-right terrorism 215
Graham Macklin
- 14 Identifying extreme-right terrorism: Concepts and misconceptions 241
Gideon Botsch

15	Section commentary: Researching transnational right-wing terrorism: challenges and trajectories Fabian Virchow	258
	Index	267