

Contents

1. Foreword Ian Brown	iii
2. Introduction Bashabi Fraser and Debnarayan Bandyopadhyay	1
3. 'Webs of Significance: Rammohun Roy and Dwarkanath Tagore' Kathryn Simpson	5
4. "When you see millions of mouthless dead": Scottish Poetry of the Great War (1914-18) Argha Kumar Banerjee	21
5. A Cakewalk between Asansol and Dundee: Material Manifestations of A Colonial Thirdspace in a Bengali Industrial Town Santanu Banerjee, Suvojit Chatterjee Edward Hollis and Hemonta Mondal	35
6. From Alexander Hamilton to Patrick Geddes: New Nature Writing and India Debarati Bandyopadhyay	54
7. The Ambivalence of Tolerance: William Wilson Hunter and the Rise of Surveillance Literature in Colonial Bengal Pritam Mukherjee	71
8. Telling the Tale of the Garden Zoological: Exploring Scottish Animal Stories of Andrew Lang through an Ecological Lens Ritushree Sengupta	89
9. The Scottish Church College and the Scots Missionaries: Continuities and Influences Kaberi Chatterjee	101
10. The Kinetic Mission of Kalimpong: The Enduring Mission of Rev Dr John Anderson Graham and Dr Graham's Homes in the History of Scottish Foreign Missions Subhadeep Paul	115

11. Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar and Scottish Transactions in Nineteenth-Century Bengal Nandini Bhattacharya	129
12. The Transnational Poet: Re-negotiating the Dichotomy of Homeland and Hostland Bashabi Fraser	150
13. "Disruptions": Rise of Free Church of Scotland and its Impact on Bengali Intelligentsia in the Nineteenth Century Deb Narayan Bandyopadhyay	174
14. David Hare and Patrick Geddes: The Scottish Legacy in Bengal Saptarshi Mallick	185
15. Of Rights to Expression & Information under the Indian and Scottish Legal Systems: A Comparative Analysis Subir Kumar Roy and Jayanta Kumar Saha	206