

Contents

Preface	vii
---------	-----

Part I

1	Introduction: From Collective Memory to the Politics of Regret	3
2	Collective Memory: The Two Cultures	17
3	Collective Memory and Cultural Constraint: Holocaust Myth and Rationality in German Politics	37
4	Genre Memories and Memory Genres: A Dialogical Analysis of May 8, 1945, Commemorations in the Federal Republic of Germany	55
5	Figurations of Memory: A Process-Relational Methodology, Illustrated on the German Case	85

Part II

6	The Politics of Regret: Analytical Frames	121
7	The Value of Regret? Lessons from and for Germany	139
8	From Theodicy to Ressentiment : Trauma and the Ages of Compensation	153

9	Collective Memory and Chronic Differentiation: Historicity and the Public Sphere	175
	Endnotes	193
	References	207
	Index	223