

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Contributors	ix
General Editor's Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv

Introduction: National Popular Musics: Betwixt and Beyond the Local and Global

1

Ian Biddle and Vanessa Knights

PART I POSITIONS

1	National Identity and Music in Transition: Issues of Authenticity in a Global Setting	19
	John O'Flynn
2	Where Does World Music Come From? Globalization, Afropop and the Question of Cultural Identity	39
	David Murphy

PART II LOCATIONS

3	Voicing Risk: Migration, Transgression and Relocation in Spanish/Moroccan Raï	65
	Parvati Nair
4	Banda, a New Sound from the Barrios of Los Angeles: Transmigration and Transcultural Production	81
	Helena Simonett
5	Rapping at the Margins: Musical Constructions of Identities in Contemporary France	93
	Brian George
6	The Quest for National Unity in Uyghur Popular Song: Barren Chickens, Stray Dogs, Fake Immortals and Thieves	115
	Joanne N. Smith

vi	Music, National Identity and the Politics of Location
7	The Singer and the Mask: Voices of Brazil in Antônio Nóbrega's Madeira Que Cupim Não Rói Robin Warner and Regina Nascimento	143
8	Popular Music, Tradition and Serbian Nationalism Robert Hudson	161
9	Those Norwegians: Deconstructing the Nation-State in Europe through Fixity and Indifference in Norwegian Club Music Stan Hawkins	179
	Afterword Richard Middleton	191
	Glossary of Musical Genres and Subgenres	205
	Bibliography	221
	Index	239

List of Figures

1	The Greimasian semiotic square	194
2	Žižek's Greimasian square	194
3	Local/global as a Greimasian square	195
4	A second elaboration of the local/global as a Greimasian square	195
5	Lacan's schema for the functions of discourse	200
6	Lacan's Discourse of the Master	200
7	Lacan's Discourse of the Hysteric	201
8	The Discourse of the Analyst	201