

Contents

List of tables	ix
About the authors	x
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xlii
List of abbreviations	xv
1 Organization theory for the public sector	1
Learning objectives	1
An organizational theory approach to the public sector	1
Differences between public and private organizations	4
Characteristics of public organizations	6
Delimitation of organization theory for the public sector	8
Bounded rationality, political science and organization theory	10
Dependent variables	12
Structures, processes and tasks in public organizations	15
Outline of this book	17
Chapter summary	18
Discussion questions	18
References and further reading	18
2 An instrumental perspective	20
Learning objectives	20
Organizations as instruments	20
The logic of consequence - instrumentally rational actions	22
Formal organizational structure	23
Structural features and concrete actions	27
Coalitions and interest articulation	29
Organizational structure, environment and uncertainty	31

Steering through design and exploiting latitude for action	33
Rational calculation and political control	34
Chapter summary	35
Discussion questions	35
References and further reading	36
3 A cultural perspective	37
Learning objectives	37
The meaning of organizational culture	37
The explanatory power of cultural variables	39
The logic of cultural appropriateness	40
Establishing and changing organizational culture	43
The significance of historical roots for cultural paths of development	45
Organizational culture and leadership	47
Demography and culture	48
Characteristics of a political-administrative culture	49
Institution and environment - culture in the context of a wider political system	50
Possible advantages and disadvantages of a well-developed organizational culture	52
Contextualization, ethics and trust	54
Chapter summary	55
Discussion questions	55
References and further reading	55
4 A myth perspective	57
Learning objectives	57
Meaning of myths	57
Contents of myths	59
Relationship between different recipes	61
Elastic recipes	62
Development and diffusion of myths	63
Organizational identity as a condition for the spread of organizational recipes	66
Characteristics of the most widely spread organizational recipes	67
How rationalized recipes are adopted and implemented	70
Rationalized recipes in instrumental and institutional interpretations	74
Chapter summary	76
Discussion questions	76
References and further reading	77

5	Goals and values	79
	Learning objectives	79
	Meaning of goals and values	79
	Definition of goals	80
	Formulation and development of goals	82
	Typical features of goals in public organizations	86
	Management by objectives and results (MBOR)	89
	Values in public organizations	92
	Effects of goals and values in public administration	94
	Chapter summary	95
	Discussion questions	95
	References and further reading	96
6	Leadership and steering	97
	Learning objectives	97
	Meaning of leadership and steering	97
	More steering than leadership - an instrumental perspective	99
	More leadership than steering - a cultural perspective	100
	Symbolic aspects of leadership and steering	101
	Types of political and administrative leadership	102
	Leadership functions and roles	103
	Leadership and levels	106
	Leadership and responsibility	107
	Leadership and the public	109
	Leadership traits and styles	110
	Leadership and context	113
	Leadership and steering in public organizations	115
	Chapter summary	119
	Discussion questions	120
	References and further reading	120
7	Reform and change	122
	Learning objectives	122
	Reform and change in public organizations	122
	Organizing the reform process	125
	Reform programmes and reform initiatives	128
	Course and outcome of reform and change processes	133
	Reform and change in the central authority of the Norwegian police force	135
	Perspectives and connections	139
	Chapter summary	140

CONTENTS

Discussion questions	140
References and further reading	141
8 Effects and implications		143
Learning objectives	143
Design of public organizations matters but the effects are ambiguous	143
Perspectives and effects	144
Meaning of effects	145
Difficulty of measuring effects	149
Challenges in performance measurement and effect studies	152
Knowledge about effects	158
There is no best solution - learning and effects	161
Chapter summary	163
Discussion questions	163
References and further reading	163
9 Understanding and design		165
Learning objectives	165
Perspectives, design and strategies	165
Complex and dynamic logics of action	166
Towards a prescriptive organization theory for the public sector	175
Normative foundation for public organizations	177
Significance of context	178
How reforms should be carried out	181
Prospects for the future	182
Chapter summary	184
Discussion questions	185
References and further reading	185
Index		187