

CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction Thickening Comparison: On the Multiple Facets of Comparability	1
Jörg Niewöhner and Thomas Scheffer
Chapter One Comparability on Shifting Grounds: How Legal Ethnography differs from Comparative Law	17
Thomas Scheffer
Chapter Two Producing Multi-sited Comparability	43
Estrid Sørensen
Chapter Three Re-describing Social Practices: Comparison as Analytical and Explorative Tool	79
Robert Schmidt
Chapter Four Producing Alternative Objects of Comparison in Healthcare: Following a Web-based Technology for Asthma Treatment through the Lab and the Clinic	103
Henriette Langstrup and Brit Ross Winthereik
Chapter Five Contrasts and Comparisons: Three Practices of Forensic Investigation	129
Amade M'charek
Chapter Six Comparison in the Wild and more Disciplined Usages of an Epistemic Practice	155
Katrin Amelang and Stefan Beck
Chapter Seven Making a Comparative Object	181
Kati Hannken-Illjes

Chapter Eight On Positionality and its Comparability in the Legal Context	195
Alexander V. Kozin
Index	221