

Contents

List of abbreviations	page ix
Glossary	xi
Acknowledgements	xvii
1 Introduction: Community and Conflict in South Asia	1
2 Building Spheres of Community: 1860s–1910s	30
3 Transforming Spheres of Community: The Post–First World War Colonial World	80
4 Defining Spheres of Community: Society, Religious Mobilisation and Anti-colonialism	119
5 State Transformation, Democracy and Conflict: High Politics and the Everyday in the 1940s	163
6 Forging National Consensus and Containing Pluralism: South Asian States between 1947 and 1967	195
7 New Conflicts and Old Rivalries: The 1970s and 1980s	232
8 The Resurgence of Communalism? 1990 to the 2000s	269
Conclusion	309
Bibliography	317
Index	337