

Contents

Maps	vi
Figures	vi
Contributors	viii
Introduction
Pascal Couderc and Kenneth Sillander	1
1. Ancestors as Sources of Authority and Potency among the Bentian of East Kalimantan
Kenneth Sillander	62
2. Recalling the Dead, Revering the Ancestors: Multiple Forms of Ancestorship in Saribas Iban Society
Clifford Sather	114
3. Separated Dead and Transformed Ancestors: Two Facets of Ancestorship among the Uut Danum of West Kalimantan
Pascal Couderc	153
4. "These are Things we have not Seen. How can we Know What They are Like?" Melanau Ancestorship as an Existential Concern
Ann Appleton	207
5. Iban Petara as Transformed Ancestors
Véronique Béguet	243
6. Invoking Ne' Rake: Ancestral Comrades in Contemporary Bornean Warfare
Christian Oesterheld	278
7. Agency and Ambiguity in Communication with the Ancestors: Spirit Possession, Ancestral Transformation, and the Conflicts of Modernity among the Benuaq
Richard C. Payne	313
8. Ancestorship Without (Human) Ancestors: Ritual Hearths and Hierarchy in Gerai
Christine Helliwell	356
Index	377