

DER DONAURAUM

Zeitschrift des
Institutes für den Donaauraum und Mitteleuropa

50. Jahrgang
3-4/2010:
Cultural Changes in Central and South East Europe
after 1989

Content

HEIDEMARIE UHL, WOLFGANG MÜLLER-FUNK

Introduction – Cultural Changes in Central and Southeast Europe after 1989	191
---	-----

* * *

Commemoration and Policies of Memory

ANTON KRASUN

Soviet History and the Politics of Memory in Ukraine: Some Evidence from Discourse Analysis and Expert Interviews.....	197
---	-----

LJILJANA RADONIC

Conflicting Memories in “Unified Europe” – Standards of Remembrance in the Center and at the Periphery.....	213
--	-----

DARKO STOJANOV

In Search of Autochthony: A Case Study of the Great Migration Period as Presented in History Textbooks in Macedonia	225
---	-----

Constructions of Identity

OLIWIA BERDAK

Remembering the Past, Correcting the Present, Determining the Future: Analysing Croatian Women’s War Recollections	237
---	-----

SANJA LAZAREVIĆ-RADAK

Culture and Identity: Orientalization of Serbia in the Period of Crisis.....	255
---	-----

DOROTA SZELIGOWSKA

Intellectuals and Fatherland in a Newly Sovereign Country – the Debate about Fatherland in Poland in 1992.....	271
---	-----

Consumption, Youth- and Pop Culture

ANITTA HIPPER

‘Return to Europe’ Revisited - The Role of Manele and Chalda in Constructing Norms and Counter-elites in Romania and Bulgaria	297
--	-----

ROXANA CUCIUMEANU

Representations of the City in Romanian Post-Communist Cinema –
Case Study: “Schimb valutar” (“Exchange”) by Nicolae Mărgineanu, 2008 313

CIPRIAN-VIOREL POP

How to Do Things with Few Words: An Analysis of the Development of Advertising Discourse in Romania after 1989 327

MARINA SIMIĆ

Locating Cosmopolitanism: Practicing Popular Culture in Post-socialist Serbia .. 345

New Avant-gardes in Film, Literature and New Media

ANDRADA FĂTU-TUTOVEANU

The Post-Communist Romanian Book Market – Recovering Politically
Censored Literature in the 1990s 367

IULIA MICU

Crisis, Fictionalisation and Confluence. Playing Identities in Romanian Contemporary Drama 377

ZHANA POPOVA

Gangster Wars and Changes in Media Culture 385

KRIS VAN HEUCKELOM

Fear and Loving in Vienna – Screening Polish Migrants in Post-1989
Austrian Film 397

New Narratives and New Modalities of Narration in Literature after 1989?

WERONIKA BUCHWALD

“Bin in Mostar. Hier ist es auch nicht anders als anderswo” – The Balkans as War Theatre in the Prose Work of Peter Handke, Juli Zeh and Michael Zeller ... 419

GABRIELA VOJVODA-ENGSTLER

Bosnia as Barzakh – Third Space as a Metaphor for the Construction of Identity in Dževad Karahasan’s Novel “Noćno vijeće” (“Night Council”)..... 431

Abstracts 441

Authors/Editors 449

Table of Content 2010 452