

Contents Inhalt Table des matières

Editors	4
Forum	5
Mark Kramer The Unintended Revolution. Commentary on «Criticism as Crisis, or Why the Soviet Union still Collapsed?»	5
Jörg Baberowski «Badly Said is Badly Lied». Reply to my Critics	19
Media History after 1945
Christina von Hodenberg Expeditionen in den Methodenschungel. Herausforderungen der Zeitgeschichtsforschung im Fernsehzeitalter	24
Andreas Fickers The Emergence of Television as a Conservative Media Revolution: Historicising a Process of Remediation in the Post-War Western European Mass Media Ensemble	49
Dana Mustata «The Revolution Has Been Televised...». Television as Historical Agent in the Romanian Revolution	76
Frank Bösch, Jérôme Bourdon, Michael Meyen, Lynn Spigel Edited by Christina von Hodenberg Roundtable. Writing (Media) History in the Age of Audio-Visual and Digital media.	98
Article
Stefan Wiese Lalaevs Haus brennt. Das Februarpogrom von 1905 in Baku – Paralyzierter Staat und Massengewalt im Russischen Reich	117
Service
Larissa Wegner Crowdsourcing für die Geschichtswissenschaft? Das Online-Archiv Europeana 1914–1918	139