Contents

List of Figures ix

Introduction 1
MARGO DEMELLO

PART I
(Mis) Representing Animals: The Limits and Possibilities of Representation

1 What Do We Want from Talking Animals? Reflections on Literary Representations of Animal Voices and Minds 17
KARLA ARMBRUSTER

2 Our Animals, Ourselves: Representing Animal Minds in Timothy and The White Bone 35
RYAN HEDIGER

3 Investigations of a Dog, by a Dog: Between Anthropocentrism and Canine-Centrism 49
NAAMA HAREL

PART II
Animals in Human Traditions

4 With Dogs and Lions as Witnesses: Speaking Animals in the History of Christianity 63
LAURA HOBGOOD-OSTER

5 The Speaking Animal: Non-Human Voices in Comics 73
LISA BROWN

6 Who'll Let the Dogs In? Animals, Authorship, and the Library Catalog 79
NANCY BABB

PART III
Animal Self, Human Self

7 Mistresses as Masters: Voicing Female Power Through the Subject Animal in Two Nineteenth-Century Animal Autobiographies 89
MONICA FLEGEL

8 Catster.com: Creating Feline Identities Online 103
JENNIFER L. SCHALLY AND STEPHEN R. COUCH

9 Identity, Community, and Grief: The Role of Bunspace in Human and Rabbit Lives 115
MARGO DEMELLO

PART IV
Interspecies Communication and Connection

10 Talking Dogs, Companion Capital, and the Limits of Bio-Political Fitness 133
MERIT ANGLIN

11 If We Could Talk to the Animals: On Changing the (Post) Human Subject 149
KATHY RUDY

PART V
Speaking and Knowing: Accessing Animal Subjectivity

12 The Power of Testimony: The Speaking Animal's Plea for Understanding in a Selection of Eighteenth-Century British Poetry 163
ANNE MILNE

13 "Straight from the Horse's Mouth": Equine Memoirs and Autobiographies 179
MARION COPELAND

14 First Friend, First Words: Speaking of/to Talking Dogs 193
JILL MORSTAD

PART VI
The Ethics and Value of Speaking for Animals

15 Horse Talk: Horses and Human(e) Discourses 207
NATALIE CORINNE HANSEN

16 Speaking For Dogs: The Role of Dog Biographies in Improving Canine Welfare in Bangkok, Thailand 231
NIKKI SAVVIDES

17 Billy and Kani 245
G.A. BRADSHAW

Contributors 265
Index 271