

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction: Germans in the British Empire.....	1
John R. Davis, Margrit Schulte Beerbühl, and Stefan Manz
Migration and Business Ventures: German-speaking Migrants and Commercial Networks in the Eighteenth-Century British Atlantic World	19
Mark Häberlein
German Merchants and the British Empire during the Eighteenth Century.....	39
Margrit Schulte Beerbühl
German Overseas Interests in Mid-Nineteenth-Century Britain	59
Ulrike Kirchberger
Friedrich Max Müller and the British Empire: A German Philologist and Imperial Culture in the Nineteenth Century.....	79
John R. Davis
Sugarbakers, Farmers, Goldminers: From Hanover via London to New Zealand.....	101
Horst Rössler
Agents of Transnationalism: German-Canadian Immigration Agents in the Second Half of the Nineteenth Century.....	117
Angelika Sauer
“The Core of this Dark Continent”: Ludwig Leichhardt’s Australian Explorations	141
Angus Nicholls
Promoting the German Navy in the British Empire: The Central League for German Navy Clubs Abroad, 1898–1918	163
Stefan Manz
Index of Names and Places	181