

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
List of Contributors	xi
List of Figures	xv
Introduction – Greta Grace Kroeker	1
Part I: Tactics for Inclusion
1 Trade in Tolerance: The Portuguese New Christians of Antwerp, 1530–50 – Victoria Christman	9
2 Swimming against the Tide: The Entry of Jews in Spain. Religious Mobility, Social Control and Integration at the End of the Ancien Régime – Marina Torres Arce	19
3 Populating a ‘Nest of Pirates, Murtherers, etc.’: Tuscan Immigration Policy and Ragion di Stato in the Free Port of Livorno – Stephanie Nadalo	31
Part II: Programmes of Restoration
4 Exile, Education and Eschatology in the Works of Jan Amos Comenius and John Milton – David Parry	47
5 Missionaries as Exiles: Calvinist Strategies for Restoration in Communities under the Dutch East India Company – Charles H. Parker	61
6 Niccolò Guidalotto da Mondavio and his City View of Constantinople (1662): The Experience of an Exile – Nirit Ben-Aryeh Debby	75
7 Educating for Martyrdom: British Exiles in the English College at Valladolid – Berta Cano-Echevarría and Ana Sáez-Hidalgo	93
Part III: Methods of Coping
8 Freedom as Exile: Michael Servetus and the Alumbrados – María Tausiet	107
9 Coping with Poverty: Dutch Reformed Exiles in Emden, Germany – Timothy G. Fehler	121

10 Anabaptist Migration to Moravia and the Hutterite Brethren – Emese Balint	137
11 Chaos and Community: 1492 and the Formation of the Sephardic Diaspora – Jonathan Ray	153
12 Displaced Intellectuals and Rebuilt Networks: The Protestant Exiles from the Lands of the Bohemian Crown – Vladimír Urbánek	167
Notes	181
Index	235